PART 982—FILBERTS GROWN IN OREGON AND WASHINGTON

Free and Restricted Percentages for 1965-66 Fiscal Year

Notice was published in the October 1, 1965, issue of the FEDERAL REGISTER (30 F.R. 12539) regarding a proposal to establish free and restricted percentages applicable to filberts grown in Oregon and Washington for the 1965-66 fiscal year beginning August 1, 1965. The percentages are based on recommendations of the Filbert Control Board and other available information in accordance with the applicable provisions of the marketing agreement, as amended, and Order No. 982, as amended (7 CFR Part 982), regulating the handling of filberts grown in Oregon and Washington, effective under the Agriculture Marketing Agreement Act of 1937, as amended (7 U.S.C. 601-674).

The notice afforded interested persons opportunity to submit written data, views, or arguments with respect to the proposal. None were submitted within the prescribed time.

After consideration of all relevant matters presented, including those in the notice, the information and recommendations submitted by the Board, and other available information, it is found that to establish free and restricted percentages as hereinafter set forth will tend to effectuate the declared policy of the act.

Therefore, the free and restricted percentages for merchantable filberts during the 1965-66 fiscal year are established as follows:

§ 982.215 Free and restricted percentages for merchantable filberts during the 1965-66 fiscal year.

The following percentages are established for merchantable filberts for the fiscal year beginning August 1, 1965:

Free percentage.....	67
Restricted percentage.....	33

It is further found that good cause exists for not postponing the effective time of this action until 30 days after publication in the FEDERAL REGISTER (5 U.S.C. 1003(c)) in that: (1) the relevant provisions of said amended marketing agreement and this part require that free and restricted percentages designated for a particular fiscal year shall be applicable to all inshell filberts handled during such year; and (2) the current fiscal year began on August 1, 1965, and the percentages established herein will automatically apply to all such filberts beginning with such date.

(Secs. 1-19, 48 Stat. 31, as amended; 7 U.S.C. 601-674)

Dated: October 18, 1965.

[CCC Grain Price Support Reseal Loan Regs., 1965 and Subsequent Storage Periods, Amdt. 2]

PART 1421—GRAINS AND SIMILARLY HANDLED COMMODITIES

Subpart—Reseal Loan Program

MISCELLANEOUS AMENDMENTS

The regulations issued by CCC and published in 30 F.R. 2852 and 10023 are hereby amended as follows:

1. Section 1421.3482 is amended to delete paragraph (d) of § 1421.69 from the reference to the General Regulations Governing Price Support for 1964 and Subsequent Crops. The amended section reads as follows:

§ 1421.3482 Applicable sections of General Regulations Governing Price Support for 1964 and Subsequent Crops.

The following sections of the General Regulations Governing Price Support for 1964 and Subsequent Crops, published in 29 F.R. 2686, shall be applicable to all commodities placed under the reseat loan program for 1965 and subsequent years: §§ 1421.51, 1421.52 (a) through (e), 1421.54, 1421.57, 1421.58, 1421.59, 1421.62 (b), 1421.63 through 1421.65, 1421.66 (a), (c), (d), and (e), 1421.67, 1421.68 (a) and (b), 1421.69 (c), 1421.72 (c), (d), (e), (f), (j), and (k), and 1421.73 through 1421.78.

2. Section 1421.3484 is amended to provide for deliveries of resealed commodities prior to the end of a current storage period, also to clarify the language with respect to regular redemptions and deliveries. This section is amended to read as follows:

§ 1421.3484 Delivery and redemption of commodity.

In the case of deliveries described in paragraphs (a), (b), and (c) of this section, a producer must deliver the commodity in accordance with delivery instructions issued by the county office.

(a) Delivery on demand and redemption. On demand for payment of the reseat loan, the producer must either pay off the loan, plus interest, or deliver the mortgaged commodity to CCC.

(b) Voluntary early delivery. A county committee may authorize a producer to make delivery to CCC of a resealed commodity prior to the end of a storage period under the following conditions: (1) The commodity has been under reseat for a period of 4 months after the start of the storage period; (2) storage space is available at either local or transit points which are normally used for storing the commodity; and (3) delivery of the commodity will not unduly interfere with the completion of other current program functions. The quantity eligible for storage payment and the length of the storage period shall be determined as provided in § 1421.3488. The rate of payment shall be as specified in the applicable annual supplement to this subpart.

(c) Regular delivery period. The county committee may authorize delivery to CCC of the commodity during the 2 calendar months after the anniversary of the maturity date of a producer's original loan or, in the case of loans made under § 1421.3483(c), during the 2 calendar months after the anniversary of the maturity date for farm-stored price support loans applicable to the crop of the commodity on which such loan was obtained.

Title 14—AERONAUTICS AND SPACE

Chapter I—Federal Aviation Agency

[Docket No. 6832; Amdt. 39-151]

PART 39—AIRWORTHINESS DIRECTIVES

Boeing Model 707-200 and -300 Series Airplanes Equipped With JT4 Engines

A proposal to amend Part 39 of the Federal Aviation Regulations to include an airworthiness directive requiring replacement of the line tube assemblies on the subject airplanes was published in 30 F.R. 10165.

Interested persons have been afforded an opportunity to participate in the making of the amendment. One commentator suggested that Boeing Service Bulletin 2228 be referenced as an alternative means of compliance. The Agency agrees with the suggestion since this bulletin covers the same subject and has been approved. The AD has been amended to reflect this change. Another commentator objected to the issuance of the AD since it had not experienced a problem with the affected parts. The Agency cannot agree since experience has shown that the affected parts have failed in service, and in the interest of safety all affected parts must be replaced. Another commentator contends that the modification required in the AD is not justifiable as an AD. The Agency disagrees since failure of the thrust reversers can result in a potentially dangerous situation during landing or take-off abort procedures.

In consideration of the foregoing, and pursuant to the authority delegated to me by the Administrator (25 F.R. 6489), § 39.13 of Part 39 of the Federal Aviation Regulations is amended by adding the following new airworthiness directive:

BOEING. Applies to Model 707-200 and -300 Series airplanes equipped with JT4 engines.

Compliance required within the next 1200 hours' time in service after the effective date of this AD unless already accomplished.

To prevent loose B-nuts on the thrust reverser P₁ lines, remove those existing thrust reverser one-half inch P₁ line tube assemblies (located between the ground air check valve and the directional control valve) which incorporate stainless steel 17-4 PH CRES sleeves and replace with tube assemblies which incorporate case hardened 316 CRES sleeves (or equivalent) in accordance with Boeing Service Bulletin 2228 dated August 9, 1965, or later FAA-approved revision. Equivalent means of compliance shall be processed through the Aircraft Engineering Division, FAA Western Region.

(Boeing Service Bulletin 2228 dated August 9, 1965, covers this subject).

This amendment becomes effective November 20, 1965.

(Secs. 313(a), 601, and 603 of the Federal Aviation Act of 1958; 49 U.S.C. 1354(a), 1421, 1423)

PART 71—DESIGNATION OF FEDERAL AIRWAYS, CONTROLLED AIRSPACE, AND REPORTING POINTS

Alteration of Control Zone

The purpose of this amendment is to reduce the length of the Hyannis, Mass., control zone extension.

On August 25, 1965, Federal Register Document No. 65-9002 was published in the FEDERAL REGISTER (30 F.R. 10983), effective November 11, 1965, which, in part, designated the Hyannis, Mass., control zone, including an extension based on the 046° radial of the Hyannis VOR extending from the four mile radius zone to eight miles NE of the VOR. This configuration would extend over the water of Cape Cod Bay. A review of this action indicates that, because of the substantial difference of altitudes between the terrain and sea level, the control zone extension beyond the shoreline is not needed for the protection of aircraft executing approved instrument approach procedures at Hyannis. Therefore, retention of this portion of the control zone is an unnecessary burden upon the public.

Since this action involves a relatively small amount of airspace and the exclusion thereof reduces the burden upon the public, notice and public procedure hereon is unnecessary and it is in the public interest that this alteration should become effective in less than 30 days.

In consideration of the foregoing, effective immediately, Federal Register Document No. 65-9002 is amended as hereinafter set forth.

In Paragraph 1.c., the Hyannis, Mass., control zone is amended to read as follows:

Hyannis, Mass.

Within a 4-mile radius of Barnstable Airport, Hyannis, Mass. (latitude 41°40'10" N., longitude 70°16'45" W.); within 2 miles each side of the Hyannis ILS localizer NE course, extending from the 4-mile radius zone to the OM; and within 2 miles each side of the Hyannis VOR 046° and 226° radials, extending from the 4-mile radius zone to 8 miles NE of the VOR, excluding that portion of the extension based on the Hyannis VOR 046° radial which extends beyond the shoreline.

(Sec. 307(a) of the Federal Aviation Act of 1958; 49 U.S.C. 1348)

Issued in Washington, D.C., on October 14, 1965.

JAMES L. LAMPL,
Acting Chief, Airspace Regulations and Procedures Division.

[Airspace Docket No. 63-SW-109]

PART 75—ESTABLISHMENT OF JET ROUTES

Designation of Jet Route

On July 23, 1965, a Notice of Proposed Rule Making was published in the FEDERAL REGISTER (30 F.R. 9221) stating that the Federal Aviation Agency was considering an amendment to Part 75 of the Federal Aviation Regulations that would designate a jet route from Los Angeles, Calif., to Kansas City, Mo.

Interested persons were afforded an opportunity to participate in the rule making through the submission of comments. All comments received were favorable.

The route proposed in the Notice was aligned via the INT of the Winslow 075° and the Cimarron 254° radials which is the site of the Gallup, N. Mex., VORTAC scheduled to be commissioned in the future. Subsequent to the Notice, a flight check revealed that the MEA between Winslow and Cimarron would be above FL 400. An alignment from Winslow direct to Cimarron would closely parallel the proposed alignment and would reduce the MEA to FL 310.

Since this revision of the proposal would involve a very slight alteration of the alignment, it is determined that Notice and public procedure thereon is unnecessary, and the final rule, as adopted herein reflects this realignment.

In consideration of the foregoing, Part 75 of the Federal Aviation Regulations is amended, effective 0001 e.s.t., December 9, 1965, as hereinafter set forth.

Section 75.100 (29 F.R. 17776) is amended by adding the following:

Jet Route No. 134 (Los Angeles, Calif., to Kansas City, Mo.)

From Los Angeles, Calif., via the INT of the Los Angeles 089° and the Parker, Calif., 258° radials; Parker; Prescott, Ariz.; Winslow, Ariz.; Cimarron, N. Mex.; Liberal, Kans.; Wichita, Kans.; to Kansas City, Mo.

(Sec. 307(a) of the Federal Aviation Act of 1958; 49 U.S.C. 1348)

Issued in Washington, D.C. on October 14, 1965.

JAMES L. LAMPL,
Acting Chief, Airspace Regulations and Procedures Division.

Fee Structure for Seasonal Adjustments of Time Series

The fee structure for seasonal adjustments of time series is hereby amended to change the fee for furnishing these series, including card punching, from $12 to $8 per standard program and from $17 to $8 per series for various experimental programs, as shown below.

§ 50.35 - Fee structure for seasonal adjustments of time series.

The Bureau of the Census carries out seasonal adjustments of time series for other Government agencies, nonprofit organizations, and for appropriate foreign governments as a matter of international courtesy. The adjustments may be based on monthly or quarterly data collected by the Bureau of the Census or furnished by the requesting organization. Series submitted for adjustment must be for a period of not less than four years and not more than 50 years, must be continuous, and have no more than six digits in a single month or quarter. In addition to the seasonal adjustment factors and the seasonally adjusted series, charts and summary measures of the seasonal, cyclical, and irregular characteristics of the series are provided. The charge for furnishing these series, including card punching, is $8 per series for the standard program and $8 per series for various experimental programs.

A copy of the request form and more details about the program may be obtained upon request from the Director, Bureau of the Census, Washington, D.C., 20233.

In accordance with the provisions of section 4(a) of the Administrative Procedure Act, it has been found that notice of and an opportunity to participate in the rule making is unnecessary for the reason that such procedure, because of the nature of the rules, would serve no useful purpose.

(13 U.S.C. 8)

Effective date. October 22, 1965.

Director, Bureau of the Census.

Title 19—CUSTOMS DUTIES

Chapter I—Bureau of Customs,
Department of the Treasury

[T.D. 56510]

PART 24—CUSTOMS FINANCIAL AND ACCOUNTING PROCEDURE

Deferral Procedure for Payment of Estimated Import Taxes on Alco- holic Beverages

The Internal Revenue Service regulations relating to deferred payments of taxes on distilled spirits, rectified products, wines, and beer were amended effective September 24, 1965 (30 F.R. 11599), to have semimonthly return periods for deferred payments fall entirely within a calendar month and to provide a two-step increase in the period of time for filing returns. To conform to these changes, Customs Regulations dealing with optional methods of payment of import taxes covering alcoholic beverages are amended as follows:

In § 24.4, a new sentence is inserted in paragraph (a) following the first sentence; the first sentence of paragraph (b) is amended; and paragraphs (f) and (g) (3) are amended. The affected portions of § 24.4 read as follows:

§ 24.4 Optional method for payment of estimated import taxes on alcoholic beverages upon entry, or withdrawal from warehouse, for consumption.

(a) Application to defer. * * * If the importer desires the additional privilege of depositing estimated tax payments on an extended deferred basis, it must be specifically requested. * * *

(b) Deferred payment periods. A period shall commence on October 24 and run through October 31, 1965; thereafter the periods shall run from the 1st day of each month through the 15th day of that month, and from the 16th day of each month through the last day of that month. * * *

(f) Deposit of tax payments—(1) Deferred tax basis. Deposit must be made on or before October 31 for the period October 24 through October 31, 1965. For subsequent periods, except as provided in subparagraph (2) of this paragraph, deposits must be made on or before the last day of each period, i.e., on or before the 15th day of the month, or on or before the last day of the month.

(2) Extended deferred tax basis. Where a collector of customs has granted permission to an importer to deposit taxes on an extended deferred basis he shall deposit all taxes for periods to and including the period ending June 30, 1966, as follows:

(i) For periods ending on the 15th day of the month, not later than the 25th day of the month; and

(ii) For periods ending on the last day of the month, not later than the 10th day of the next succeeding month.

Commencing with the period beginning July 1, 1966, and for each subsequent period, deposits of taxes shall be made not later than the last day of the next succeeding period.

(3) On or before the last day on which a deposit of deferred taxes may be made the importer must present to the cashier, in numerical sequence, the B and C copies for each deferral of tax on an entry or withdrawal made during the period along with payment covering all estimated taxes due on such entries and withdrawals. When the last day of the deferred payment period ends on a day other than one specified in § 1.8(a) of this chapter as a day for the transaction of general customs business, payment must be made on the next such business day. The cashier will receipt each C copy and return it as soon as possible to the importer for his record of payment. However, if an importer advises the collector of customs in writing that he does not want a receipt, this and other provisions for the use of a C copy shall not be applicable.

(4) If a shipment is released under the immediate delivery procedure in § 8.59 of this chapter in one deferral period and the time for filing entry, including any authorized extensions of such time, falls into another such period, all estimated taxes must be paid on or before the due date of the latter period.

(g) Restrictions on deferring tax deposits. * * *

(3) Except where an importer has permission to deposit taxes on an extended deferred basis, all entries or withdrawals from consumption filed on the last day of a deferment period must be accompanied by the deposit of the estimated tax, and no deferral of estimated tax is permitted for the said entries or withdrawals.

(R.S. 161, as amended, 251 sec. 624, 46 Stat. 759, sec. 201, 72 Stat. 1322, 1334, 1335, 68A Stat. 917; 5 U.S.C. 22, 19 U.S.C. 66, 1624, 26 U.S.C. 5007, 5054, 5061, 7805)

Because this Treasury decision (1) amends regulations dealing with an optional method of paying import taxes, and (2) liberalizes the regulations by providing extended periods for the filing of deferred payment documents and deferred tax deposits, it is found unnecessary to issue it with notice and public procedure thereon under section 4(a) of the Administrative Procedure Act, approved June 11, 1946, or subject to the effective date limitations of section 4(c) of such Act. Accordingly, this Treasury decision will become effective October 24, 1965.

System Flow Diagrams; Order Grant- ing Reconsideration and Postpon- ing Date for Filing Initial Report

OCTOBER 14, 1965.

Subsequent to the issuance on August 19, 1965, of Order No. 303, 30 F.R. 11101, which prescribed annual reports to be filed by certain natural gas pipeline companies, a joint application was filed on behalf of the Columbia Companies listed in the margin.¹ The application petitioned for rehearing, reconsideration, stay and abrogation in toto of Order No. 303.

Although most of the points raised in the application are substantially the same as those heretofore presented to the Commission in written submittals made pursuant to the notice of proposed rule-making issued herein on February 12, 1964 (29 F.R. 2912), and the amended notice issued January 7, 1965 (30 F.R.

¹ Atlantic Seaboard Corp., Kentucky Gas Transmission Corp., United Fuel Gas Co., The Ohio Fuel Gas Co., The Manufacturers Light and Heat Co., Home Gas Co. and Columbia Gulf Transmission Co.

447), we believe that a reexamination of the new § 260.8 would be in the public interest. Accordingly, we are granting reconsideration of our order for that purpose.

In addition, it is now apparent that it will be impossible to complete the steps we have taken in compliance with the Federal Reports Act of 1942 (5 U.S.C. 139c), in time to enable adherence to the November 15 filing date for 1964 required by ordering paragraph (A) (c) of Order No. 303. We are, therefore, extending the time for such filing to all the companies required to make the report.

The Commission finds: It is appropriate and in the public interest in administering the Natural Gas Act that the aforesaid application of Columbia Companies, dated September 17, 1965, insofar as it requests reconsideration of Order No. 303, be granted; that the application for rehearing and abrogation of the order be denied; and that the November 15, 1965, filing date for 1964 data be extended, as hereinafter ordered.

The Commission orders:

(A) The aforesaid application of the Columbia Cos. for reconsideration is granted.

(B) Section 260.8(c) is amended to read as follows:

§ 260.8 System flow diagrams.

* * * * *

(c) Flow diagrams depicting 1964 operations shall be filed by a date to be fixed hereafter.

(C) The application of Columbia Cos. is, in all other respects, denied.

By the Commission.

Title 39—POSTAL SERVICE

Chapter I—Post Office Department

PART 17—MAIL ADDRESSED TO MILITARY POST OFFICES OVERSEAS

PART 21—FIRST CLASS

PART 24—THIRD CLASS

PART 47—FORWARDING MAIL

Miscellaneous Amendments

The regulations of the Post Office Department are amended as follows:

§ 17.2 [Amended]

I. In § 17.2 Conditions applicable to mail addressed to certain military post offices overseas, make the following changes:

A. In paragraph (a) Military post offices by ZIP Code designations:

1. Revise footnote C to show new regulations concerning the shipment of tobacco products to Military Post Offices overseas. As so revised, footnote C reads as follows:

C. Cigarettes and other tobacco products prohibited.

2. Amend the data opposite post office number 09271 to read: "A-B-F-I."

3. Insert in proper numerical order the following post office numbers and their accompanying data:

Military Post Office No.:	See footnotes
96320	----- A
96321	----- A

NOTE: The corresponding Postal Manual section is 127.21.

B. In paragraph (b) Military post offices by former APO and NPO numbers:

1. Revise footnote C to show new regulations concerning the shipment of tobacco products to Military Post Offices overseas. As so revised, footnote C reads as follows:

C. Cigarettes and other tobacco products prohibited.

2. Amend the data opposite post office number 616 to read: "A-B-F."

NOTE: The corresponding Postal Manual section is 127.22.

II. In § 21.2, Classification, illustration c in paragraph (c) is revised to show the proper location of the ZIP Code in the address for an air mail letter. As so revised illustration c reads as follows:

§ 21.2 Classification.

III. In § 21.5, the material presently in this section is placed under a new paragraph (a). A new paragraph (b) is added containing regulations for the acceptance of personal letter mail, including post cards, free of postage from members of our Armed Forces in Vietnam and contiguous waters, and members of our Armed Forces hospitalized in a facility under the jurisdiction of the United States Armed Forces as a result of disease or injury incurred as a result of military service or operations in Vietnam and contiguous waters. As so amended, § 21.5 reads as follows:

§ 21.5 Mail sent by members of U.S. Armed Forces.

(a) Letters sent postage collect. Letters sent by soldiers, sailors, airmen, and marines in the United States military service located in the United States or other places where United States domestic mail service operates, addressed to places in the United States, may be dispatched for collection on delivery, under the following conditions:

(1) The address side of the letter must be marked "Soldier's Letter," "Airman's Letter," "Sailor's Letter," or "Marine's Letter," as appropriate.

(2) Under the marking, the letter must bear the signature and official designation, either with facsimile handstamp or in writing, of a commissioned officer to whose command the soldier or airman belongs, or of a surgeon or chaplain at a hospital where he is; and in the Navy and Marine service, of a commissioned officer attached to the vessel on which the member is serving or an officer commanding a hospital or detachment ashore where he is.

(3) Postage, at single rate for each ounce or fraction, is collected on delivery.

(b) Letters sent free. (1) Any personal letter mail, including post cards, in the usual and generally accepted form, may be mailed free of postage under the following conditions:

(i) When mailed by:

(a) Any member of the U.S. Armed Forces (Army, Navy, Air Force, Marine Corps, and Coast Guard) at any U.S. military post office in Vietnam and contiguous waters, as defined by regulations of the Department of Defense.

(b) Any member of the U.S. Armed Forces hospitalized in a facility under the jurisdiction of the Armed Forces of the United States as the result of disease or injury incurred as a result of military service or operations in Vietnam and contiguous waters, and air space thereover.

(ii) When mailed to:

(a) Any place within the United States, including Puerto Rico or any other possession of the United States, where the domestic mail service operates.

(b) Any Army and Air Force or Navy post office.

(iii) When such mail bears:

(a) In the upper right corner of the address side, in the handwriting of the sender, the word "FREE," and

(b) In the upper left corner of the address side the name of the sender, his service number, grade, and complete military address.

(2) Letter mail sent free under the conditions in subparagraph (1) of this paragraph will be afforded transportation by the means which will give the earliest possible delivery to the addressee. This mail may not be registered, insured, or certified. It may be accepted as special delivery mail upon payment of the required fee.

NOTE: The corresponding Postal Manual section is 131.5.

IV. In § 24.8 Sealing, paragraph (b) is amended by including a cross reference to make it clear that sealed, unmarked third-class matter is subject to the first-class postage rate. As so amended, paragraph (b) reads as follows:

§ 24.8 Sealing.

* * * * *

(b) Marking. All sealed pieces mailed at the third-class postage rates must be legibly marked with the two words "Third Class." The marking may not be within or part of a meter stamp, permit imprint, the markings required by § 24.4(b)(3), or a decorative design. See § 21.2(a)(1)(v) of this chapter regarding matter sealed and not marked.

NOTE: The corresponding Postal Manual section is 134.82.

V. Section 47.4 is modified by deleting reference to NPO addresses in the exception. Second-class mail for Navy personnel transferred overseas will be forwarded by the military. As so modified, § 47.4 reads as follows:

§ 47.4 Address changes of persons in U.S. service.

All first-, second-, and fourth-class mail and third-class mail of obvious value addressed to persons in the United States service (civil and military) serving at any place where the United States mail service operates, whose change of address is caused by official orders, will be forwarded until it reaches the addressee and no additional postage will be charged. Second-, obvious value third-, and fourth-class mail and air parcel post so forwarded is endorsed by the forwarding office "Change of Address Due to Official Orders." This provision for free forwarding from one post office to another applies to mail for the members of the household whose change of address is caused by official orders to persons in the United States service.

EXCEPTION: Second-class mail will not be forwarded from the United States to overseas APO addresses by military authorities. Copies of publications addressed to Army or Air Force personnel transferred to overseas assignments will be endorsed by military personnel "Forwarding prohibited, addressee assigned" overseas, and returned to the post office for disposition. See § 48.2(b) of this chapter. See § 47.2 regarding time limit of orders filed with the post office.

NOTE: The corresponding Postal Manual section is 157.4.

Title 47—TELECOMMUNICATION

Chapter I—Federal Communications Commission

[Docket No. 15586; FCC 65-924]

PART 2—FREQUENCY ALLOCATIONS AND RADIO TREATY MATTERS; GENERAL RULES AND REGULATIONS

PART 21—DOMESTIC PUBLIC RADIO SERVICES (OTHER THAN MARITIME MOBILE)

PART 74—EXPERIMENTAL, AUXILIARY AND SPECIAL BROADCAST SERVICES

PART 91—INDUSTRIAL RADIO SERVICES

Miscellaneous Amendments

In the matter of amendment of Parts 2, 21, 74 and 91 of the Commission's rules and regulations relative to the licensing of microwave radio stations used to relay television signals to community antenna television systems, Docket No. 15586; First Report and Order and Further Notice of Proposed Rule Making.

1. On August 3, 1964, the Commission issued a Notice of Proposed Rule Making in the above-entitled matter which was duly published in the FEDERAL REGISTER (29 F.R. 11458, August 8, 1964). It was proposed therein to amend certain sections of Parts 2, 21, 74 and 91 of the Commission's Rules and Regulations concerning the licensing of microwave radio stations used to relay television broadcasting signals to community antenna television (CATV) systems.¹

2. The rule-making proposals are discussed under four separate headings in the Notice of Proposed Rule Making, as follows:

Part I—Proposed rules with respect to common carrier applications and showing of public need.

¹ Generally speaking, a CATV system has been designed primarily as a wire or cable facility receiving and amplifying the signals broadcast by one or more television stations and redistributing such signals to subscribing members of the public. The role of microwave facilities in the operation of a CATV system has usually consisted of the retransmission of television broadcasting signals, which are picked up off-the-air at a point some distance from the television broadcasting station antenna, and the relay of those signals through one or more radio repeaters to a terminal point in the community served by the CATV, from which terminal point the signals are distributed to individual homes of subscribers by means of cable.

Part II—Proposed frequency allocations for common carriers serving CATV systems.

Part III—Proposed non-common carrier frequency reallocations for CATV use.

Part IV—Technical standards.

Separate comments were invited regarding each Part on or before October 1, 1964, and October 15, 1964, was fixed as the date by which replies should be submitted.

3. The notice indicated (par. 41) the Commission's intention to spin-off portions of the rule making for early decision in the event that other portions required more lengthy consideration. By order issued on October 12, 1964 (29 F.R. 14191, October 15, 1964), the Commission granted requests by National Community Television Association, Inc. (NCTA) and National Association of Microwave Common Carriers, Inc. (NAMCC) for extension of the time for filing comments on Parts II and IV of the rule making to April 1, 1965, in order to permit NCTA and NAMCC to conduct various technical studies and equipment tests.² The Commission spun-off Parts I and III of the rule making for earlier comment in the same order, stating:³

Part I is readily severable, since the issue is one of policy and not dependent upon technical matters, and an early resolution is required in the public interest to facilitate the processing of common carrier applications. We also believe it feasible and desirable to determine the appropriate frequency band location for non-common carrier CATV operations in advance of determining what technical standards would govern such operations and how much of the band would ultimately be used for this purpose.

4. Comments and reply comments on Parts I and III have now been received from the persons shown in the attached Appendix A.⁴ Accordingly, this First Report and Order is concerned only with Parts I and III of the rule making. The comments and our conclusions with respect to each of these Parts are discussed in separate sections below.

A. Part I—Proposed rules with respect to common carrier applications and showing of public need.

5. In Part I of the Notice of Proposed Rule Making the Commission proposed to amend Part 21 of its rules (§§ 21.700 and 21.709) so as to require that all applications for authorizations (including applications for renewal of license) for stations in the Domestic Public Point-to-Point Microwave Radio Service, used to relay television signals to CATV systems, shall include a factual showing that at least 50 percent of the customers of the applicant (on the microwave system involved) are unrelated and unaffiliated with the applicant, and that the proposed usage by such customers, in terms of hours of use and channels delivered, constitutes at least 50 percent of the usage of the applicant's microwave system. Applications which do not include such a showing would be returned.⁵

6. The Commission also proposed to add a new paragraph (c) to § 21.709 of the rules, to afford a transition period for existing licensees who could not make the required showing. This paragraph would provide that existing common carrier licensees serving related or affiliated CATV customers may elect, within specified time periods, to become licensees in a noncommon carrier microwave radio service established for the relay of television signals to CATV systems. Such licensees, who elected and were qualified to become licensees in the non-common carrier service, would be granted a waiver of the Commission's rules so that they could use their presently authorized frequencies until February 1, 1971. However, subsequent renewal applications would be accepted only for frequencies available in the noncommon carrier radio service, and any additions or replacements of microwave facilities or extensions of service to new points of communication proposed by such licensees would be authorized only on frequencies available for noncommon carrier operations.

7. We proposed these amendments of our rules in order to facilitate the processing of applications by miscellaneous common carriers (MCCs)⁶ for microwave frequencies to relay television signals to CATVs. As set forth in the Notice, the Commission has designated a number of such applications for hearing to determine whether sufficient public need exists for the service to warrant the use of common carrier frequencies. This issue has arisen where it appears that the facilities are being used, or are intended to be used, primarily to serve customers who are related to or affiliated with the applicant. Since common carrier frequencies are reserved for use by common carriers in rendering their services to the public, any use of these frequencies principally to serve customers who are interrelated with the carrier is inconsistent with the purpose of the allocation.

8. The determination of such public need issues entirely on a case-by-case adjudicatory basis has caused lengthy delays in the processing of common carrier microwave applications, affecting not only the applications of MCCs serving CATVs but also the applications of the landline telephone and telegraph companies who use frequencies in this service to implement their many and varied public offerings. It is necessary that this situation be alleviated because any inordinate delay in the processing of applications for vitally needed communications facilities is detrimental to the public interest.

9. The proposed rules are designed to expedite our determination of public need issues by requiring a threshold showing by the applicant that at least 50 percent of the proposed usage will be to serve unrelated, public customers. The prescription of a minimum standard by rule, which must be met before the application will be accepted for processing, would enable us to avoid "[wasting] time on applications which do not state a valid basis for hearing." United States v. Storer Broadcasting Co., 351 U.S. 192, 205. Moreover, it is hoped that applicants, being more specifically informed of the Commission's licensing policies, would not file applications for common carrier frequencies when they might more appropriately apply for frequencies in a non-common carrier microwave service.

10. American Telephone & Telegraph Co. supports the rule amendments proposed in Part I. All other persons submitting comments oppose, in whole or in part, the Commission's proposals. The substance of the opposition comments and the basis for our conclusions are set forth below.

11. The comments submitted by or on behalf of CATV systems or miscellaneous common carriers serving CATV systems, particularly those of NCTA and NAMCC, argue at some length that the requirement for 50 percent usage by unrelated customers would impose a novel and erroneous legal test for common carrier status. They state that the sole test for common carrier status is a bona fide offer of the entity to serve the public upon reasonable request, without discrimination, pursuant to legally applicable tariffs. Thus it is legal error, they assert, for the Commission to make the legal status of an entity as a bona fide common carrier and, therefore, its eligibility to use common carrier frequencies, dependent upon a showing that the entity serves or proposes to serve non-related customers.

12. It appears that this argument may stem from a misunderstanding as to the nature of the proposed rules. Contrary

² By order of Mar. 29, 1965 (30 F.R. 4322, Apr. 2, 1965) the Commission further extended the time for comment on Parts II and IV until July 1, 1965, to permit completion and analysis of the technical studies.

⁴ In addition to comments on the proposed rules, various interested persons have requested the Commission to institute new rule making relating to CATV, to consolidate the new proceeding with all pending CATV proceedings (including Docket No. 15586), and to withhold decision on the pending proceedings until all the matters involved in the new consolidated proceeding can be resolved. Most of these requests were disposed of in the Notice of Inquiry and Notice of Proposed Rule Making in Docket No. 15971, issued on April 23, 1965 (FCC 65-334, 30 F.R. 6078), and in the First Report and Order in Docket Nos. 14895 and 15233, issued on Apr. 23, 1965, (FCC 65-335, 30 F.R. 6038). Moreover, we cannot conclude that the public interest would be served by withholding decision on Parts I and III of this docket pending resolution of Docket No. 15971, since that proceeding may take a substantial period of time and the issues here do not depend on the matters there involved (see infra, par. 50). Accordingly, the pleadings listed in the attached Appendix B, to the extent that they were not granted or denied in Docket No. 15971, will be denied herein.

⁶ MCCs are communications common carriers not engaged in rendering a landline telephone or telegraph service.

to the assumption of the commenting parties, the proposed rules have nothing to do with the definition of the term "common carrier" or "bona fide common carrier." Nor do they impose any new test for common carrier status. We adhere to the "holding out" test for common carrier status, and agree that the mere fact that the "holding out" extends to affiliated entities is no bar to legal status as a common carrier. Rather, the purpose of the rules is to state the basis on which common carrier frequencies will be assigned to common carrier applicants. In other words, an application which does not make the required showing of 50 percent usage by nonrelated customers would be returned without further consideration, not because of any determination that the applicant is not a common carrier, but solely because the common carrier applicant has not made a prima facie showing of sufficient public need for the service to warrant the use of common carrier frequencies.

13. The commenting parties further assert that the relationship between a carrier and its primary or exclusive customers has no relevance to the question of "public need" for the carrier's service. Thus, it is urged that the existence of one customer for a specialized service is sufficient to establish a need for the service, and that a related or affiliated customer is as much a member of the public as a nonrelated customer. It follows, according to NCTA and NAMCC, that so long as a single customer for the service exists, regardless of any identity of interest between it and the carrier, the Commission cannot, solely on the basis of the relationship, refuse to allow the carrier to use common carrier frequencies to provide the service.

14. We cannot accept so narrow a view of our powers and responsibilities under the Communications Act. While any member of the public has a legal right to demand access to an authorized common carrier service without discrimination, whether or not related to the carrier, the carrier itself does not have a legal right to the use of radio frequencies merely upon customer demand. Radio "facilities are limited; they are not available to all who may wish to use them; the radio spectrum simply is not large enough to accommodate everybody." National Broadcasting Co. v. United States, 319 U.S. 190, 213, 215-216. The Act requires a license from the Commission for all uses of radio, including its use for common carrier purposes, which can be obtained only upon a showing that the "public interest, convenience, and necessity" will be served, 47 U.S.C. 301, 307-310. And in determining the showing to be made, the Commission can properly consider that "the public interest demands that those who are entrusted with the available channels shall make the fullest and most effective use of them." National Broadcasting Co., supra, 319 U.S. at 218.

15. Moreover, section 303 of the Act authorizes the Commission, inter alia, to: "(a) Classify radio stations; (b) Prescribe the nature of the service to be rendered by each class of licensed stations and each station within any class; (c) Assign bands of frequencies to the various classes of stations; * * * (47 U.S.C. 303 (a), (b) and (c)). Pursuant to that authority, we have established the Domestic Public Point-to-Point Microwave Radio Service and assigned bands of frequencies which are reserved for use by common carriers in rendering services to the public.⁷ Other microwave frequencies have been allocated for private use in the Business Radio Service, and Part III of this proceeding looks toward the establishment of a community antenna relay service. In view of the availability of microwave frequencies for private business use and the intended public purpose of the common carrier microwave allocations, it is not unreasonable to require a common carrier applicant to make a threshold showing that at least 50 percent of the proposed usage of frequencies in the "Public Point-to-Point" service will be to serve members of the public who are not related to the applicant.⁸

16. While we may be belaboring the obvious, we wish to stress the importance to the public interest of not having common carrier frequencies taken up by persons serving principally their own businesses. These frequencies are allocated for use by common carriers in rendering services to the public. In order to permit the common carriers to serve the diverse needs of the public adequately and dependably, they are permitted to engage in special operating practices and to construct facilities of extraordinary complexity which are not ordinarily required by private users. It is important that the development of common carriers serving the public should not be blocked or inhibited by the presence in the common carrier bands of persons serving principally their own businesses, who have other frequencies allocated for such activities. It requires little foresight regarding trends toward frequency congestion to anticipate that the development of common carrier routes will soon be thwarted or affected adversely if persons serving primarily their own interests are allowed to freely occupy substantial amounts of the spectrum space available in the common carrier bands. Indeed, our experience indicates that this is already the case in the 6 Gc/s band, where there is great congestion around certain metropolitan centers. Over a period of years, it will also be true in the case of the 11 Gc/s band. In short, the very heart of our frequency allocation plan has been to set aside appropriate spectrum space to permit future growth of specified services, and, unless reallocation is shown to be in the public interest after appropriate rule making proceedings, to maintain that spectrum space for the anticipated growth. We would be acting inconsistently with that principle and with the public interest, were we to allow these common carrier bands to be utilized by those demonstrating no over-all public need for the use of the bands but rather serving principally their own local businesses. Again, in accord with sound allocation principles, such persons should employ frequencies specifically allocated for essentially private use.

17. The requirement for serving "public" customers as a necessary component of a showing of public need is not new with the proposed rules. As set forth in the Notice (par. 7-10), since 1957 we have been directing the attention of MCCs to the necessity for licensees in this service to serve the public and our intention to review the service rendered at license renewal time to determine whether there is a continuing need for a common carrier authorization. In 1959, section 21.709 was added to the rules, which requires such common carriers to make a factual showing in renewal applications that "during the preceding license period, at least 50 percent of the total hours of service rendered over the radio system, and not less than 50 percent of the radio channels therein, have been used by subscribers not directly controlling or controlled by, or under direct or indirect common control with, the applicant." Generally, renewal applications which did not make this showing, as well as some applications for new facilities, were designated for hearing on the issue of public need.

18. Thus, the rule amendments proposed in Part I would not establish any markedly different substantive standard for the grant of common carrier applications. Rather, they result from our conclusion that "the determination of public need issues entirely on a case-by-case adjudicatory basis is an inefficient way to handle the problem and that it would be preferable to have a substantive rule governing the matter in part" (par. 10 of the Notice). The return of non-complying applications without processing will aid in the "proper dispatch of the Commission's business," which is, of course, a "matter not unrelated to achieving the ends of justice." Federal Communications Commission v. WJR, 337 U.S. 265, 282; section 4(j) of the Communications Act.

19. Nor can we agree with the contention of NCTA and NAMCC that implementation of the 50 percent requirement

⁷ See Columbia Basin Microwave Co., Docket No. 14318, FCC 63-367, 25 Pike & Fischer, R.R. 367; Notice of proposed rule making in this proceeding, par. 6.

will discourage and eliminate competition among carriers in contravention of the public interest. Apart from the fact that encouragement of competition as such is not the sole or controlling reliance for safeguarding the public interest in the communications common carrier field, Federal Communications Commission v. RCA Communications, Inc., 346 U.S. 86, 89-95, we fail to see how the requirement for serving some unrelated customers would curtail competition among carriers. No reason appears why the ability of a smaller miscellaneous carrier to compete with a larger miscellaneous or landline carrier should depend on having only such a substantial amount of related customers.⁹

20. In addition to the foregoing general contentions, the parties have made a number of comments on particular aspects of the proposed rules which warrant discussion. It is asserted that a standard based on the terms "related or affiliated" is so vague as not to be susceptible of reasonable interpretation or limitation and does not, therefore, accord due process of law. In order that there may be no doubt regarding the meaning of the terms "unrelated" and "unaffiliated" as used in proposed §§ 21.700 and 21.709 of the rules, the Commission will construe "related" or "affiliated" as meaning any financial or business relationship whatsoever by contract or otherwise, directly or indirectly, between the carrier and the customer, excepting only the carrier-user relationship. Thus, in addition to situations involving common control between carrier and customer, as described in currently effective § 21.709(a), the carrier and customer will also be deemed to be related or affiliated in such situations as the following, among others: where one is the debtor or creditor of the other (except with respect to charges for communication service); where they have a common officer, director, or other employees at the management level; where there is any element of ownership or other financial interest by one in the other; and where any party has a financial interest in both. In short, it is our intention that there should be a total separation between the carrier and at least one-half of its customers in this service area. We do not anticipate that applicants will experience any difficulty in recognizing customers who are totally independent or in determining whether service to such customers will amount to 50 percent in terms of hours of use and channels delivered.

21. The comments of Meredith-Avco, Inc., urge that the requirement in paragraph (b) of § 21.709, that the showing required by paragraph (a) shall be under oath, is grossly discriminatory since oaths are no longer required with regard to any other communication service licensed by the Commission. Moreover, it is asserted that there is no legal necessity for such an oath. We agree that such a requirement serves no useful purpose here. Accordingly, paragraph (b), as proposed, will be deleted, and paragraph (c), as proposed, will be redesignated as paragraph (b).

22. Meredith-Avco also challenges as ambiguous the statement in proposed §§ 21.700 and 21.709 that: "Applications which do not contain the showing required by this section will be rejected." These sections will be revised to make it clear that applications which do not contain the 50 percent showing will be returned by the Commission as unacceptable for filing.¹⁰

23. As stated in the Notice, a showing which meets the proposed criteria of the rule will not automatically entitle an applicant to a grant. The application may nevertheless be set for hearing on a public need issue. We are unable to comply with the request of Meredith-Avco for a particularization in the rules of all further factors which might be considered. It is conceivable that some question might arise as to whether the proposed service could be provided by an existing carrier, or whether sufficient public need to justify the use of common carrier frequencies exists where, despite a prolonged holding out, a carrier continues to have only one customer, albeit independent. But questions such as these obviously require evaluation in the light of the particular circumstances and are better left for case-by-case adjudicatory determination. It is sufficient for present purposes that an application which makes the 50 percent showing required by the proposed rules, will be accepted for filing and processed in the usual course. Thereafter, the Commission's procedures pursuant to section 309(e) of the Communications Act will afford the applicant specific notice of any further public interest considerations then obtaining.¹¹

24. It is further urged by several parties that the Commission should not decide Part I of this proceeding in advance of a determination as to other parts. Generally, we see no purpose in withholding decision as to the 50 percent requirement for consideration of common carrier applications pending resolution of Part II concerning common carrier frequency allocations. This substantive requirement is not predicated upon any particular allocation of frequencies for use by common carriers in serving CATV systems. It rests solely on the public purpose of all common carrier allocations and would pertain no matter what decision is reached as to Part II.¹² However, we are persuaded by the comments that some of the provisions of proposed § 21.709 should not be made applicable to existing common carrier licensees in advance of a determination as to Parts II and IV of this proceeding.

25. Meredith-Avco asserts that miscellaneous common carriers cannot exercise the option, afforded by proposed § 21.709(c), to be licensed in another service (with a waiver for use of common carrier frequencies until February 1, 1971), unless the proposed community antenna relay (CAR) service has been established, frequencies have been allocated and technical standards have been set up. The next section of this Report and Order establishes the CAR service with basically an interim allocation of frequencies in the lower half of the 12700-

¹¹ The Communications Act does not require the Commission to prescribe by rule, or include on the application form, all of the factors which may possibly be pertinent to the public interest finding and occasion Commission inquiry. In addition to the information required in the application, section 308(b) of the Communications Act authorizes the Commission, "at any time after the filing of such original application and during the term of any such license," to "require from an applicant or licensee further written statements of fact to enable it to determine whether such original application should be granted or denied or such license revoked."

¹² Meredith-Avco asserts that the 50 percent requirement should not be limited to carriers relaying broadcast signals to CATV systems but should apply to all applicants in the Domestic Public Point-to-Point Microwave Service. We believe that broad-scale application of the rule is unnecessary, since we have not had any continuing problem in this area except with respect to carriers serving CATV systems. Nor do we think that the proposed application of the rule is discriminatory. Pursuant to section 303 (a), (b), and (c) of the Communications Act, we have proposed in Part II of the rule making specific frequency allocations for a classification of stations consisting of common carrier stations relaying broadcast signals to CATV systems. Whatever ultimate disposition is made of the allocation matter, the classification is appropriate and has been used in other connections. See, e.g., the rules adopted in Docket Nos. 14895 and 15233, FCC 65-335, 601 (1965). No discrimination is present if rules pertaining to a class of stations are applied uniformly to all stations within the class.

⁹ This is not to say, of course, that we believe a CATV system should be limited to the choice of either operating its own microwave system or resorting to the landline carriers. The grants to miscellaneous common carriers to relay television signals to CATV systems reflect our determination that it is in the public interest to have alternative common carrier facilities available. But this does not mean that each CATV system should have common carrier service provided by an affiliated carrier or that frequencies should be authorized for use by a new carrier each time a new CATV system desires common carrier service. Indeed, the result of having a large number of miscellaneous common carriers, each operating in a different area on a monopoly basis or in competition only with the landline carriers, may well be less real competition than if fewer miscellaneous carriers operated over larger areas in competition with each other as well as with the landline carriers. Moreover, larger operations serving more customers might result in greater efficiency, as well as savings in operational costs and spectrum usage, to the benefit of the public.

¹⁰ We do not believe it necessary to add the words "prima facie" before "showing," as requested by Meredith-Avco. As in other similar instances, where an application on its face makes the required showing and a dispute arises as to its accuracy or sufficiency, the matter will be resolved by appropriate procedures, including, if necessary, an evidentiary hearing with respect to any material issues of fact.

13200 Mc/s television auxiliary band, and prescribes interim technical standards for operation pending resolution of Part IV of this proceeding and a final determination of how much of the band ultimately will be allocated for CAR use. As to the matter of election by existing common carrier licensees before the ultimate technical standards and total amount of spectrum space for CAR use are known, we have decided to revise proposed § 21.709(c) (§ 21.709(b) of the rules set forth in Appendix C below), to provide that such election must be made and an application filed in the CAR service within sixty (60) days after the issuance of a Report and Order on Part II and IV of this proceeding. Pending such election time, renewal applications which do not comply with the provisions of § 21.709(a) will be granted only for such period of time as is necessary to preserve the opportunity for election. In light of the foregoing, we conclude that Part I can and should be decided now for the reasons previously set forth.

26. A further problem arises from the assertion of NCTA and NAMCC that many existing common carrier licensees will be unable to take advantage of the election procedure because they will be unable to qualify in the CAR service. Sections 74.1031 and 74.1033 of the proposed CAR rules provide that a CAR license will be issued only to the "owner of a CATV system" and that the program material transmitted over the microwave facilities shall be intended for use by "one or more CATV systems owned and controlled by the licensee" of the CAR station. NCTA and NAMCC point out that a common carrier licensee serving "affiliated or related" CATV customers might not "own and control" a CATV system, and hence could not qualify in the CAR service even if it were willing to cease operating on a common carrier for hire basis. The provision in proposed § 74.1031(b) for cooperative service to other than licensee owned CATV systems would not take care of the situation, since the proposed section states that a CAR station "may not be operated solely for the purpose of supplying program material to CATV systems owned by other than the licensee of the community antenna relay station."

27. Proposed §§ 74.1031 and 74.1033 (§§ 74.1030 and 74.1031 in Appendix C below) have been revised to provide for the issuance of CAR licenses to cooperative enterprises wholly owned by CATV owners or operators and to clarify the provisions relating to contractual service. While the provisions of §§ 74.1030 and 74.1031 in their entirety will govern all new applicants, we have decided to waive the requirements of these sections for existing common carrier licensees who elect to transfer to the CAR service. Common carrier licensees having a relationship or affiliation with a CATV system which falls short of ownership and control will be eligible to be licensed in the CAR service. We have also decided to permit common carrier licensees, who elect to transfer to the CAR service, to continue operating in this service on the business basis on which they operated in the Domestic Public Point-to-Point Microwave Radio Service, subject to all applicable statutory requirements for operating in such manner. We have reached these decisions for the following reasons.

28. When CATV systems first desired to use microwave facilities, there was no provision in the rules for private business use of microwave frequencies to relay television signals.¹³ Accordingly, if a CATV system could not, or chose not to, use a landline carrier, there may have been no alternative but for the CATV itself to initiate the establishment of a common carrier which would be eligible for a grant of common carrier frequencies. While many of the resulting miscellaneous common carriers were interrelated with the CATV customers which led to their creation, separate business entities with some independent aspects were set up in an effort to achieve compliance with the Commission's rules. The rules have now been changed to permit direct licensing of the CATV system itself. However, at this stage it might be difficult, or even work a hardship in some instances, to undo the established business entities in order to place the microwave relay and CATV operations under common ownership and control. It might also be difficult for common carrier licensees electing to transfer to the CAR service to cease, either immediately or within a relatively short period, their present mode of business operations in the Domestic Public Point-to-Point Microwave Radio Service.

29. Section 21.709(c) of the proposed rules (§ 21.709(b) in Appendix C below) reflects our view that common carrier licensees who are unable to meet the 50 percent requirement should have an opportunity to continue their operations in the CAR service if they so desire. Under the circumstances and since the persons involved may have acted in reliance on our former rules, we think it equitable to afford "grandfather" privilege to existing licensees who elect to transfer. Accordingly, common carrier licensees with affiliated or related customers will be eligible to be licensed in the CAR service even if the interrelationship does not amount to common ownership or participation in a cooperative enterprise wholly owned by CATV systems; to use common carrier frequencies until February 1, 1971; and to continue to operate in the CAR service on their existing business basis, subject to the applicable statutory requirements governing operations of that nature. We also think it equitable to permit common carrier licensees, who have elected to transfer to the CAR service, to seek additional common carrier frequencies for the purpose of serving new, unaffiliated customers during the period prior to February 1, 1971—the date on which operations not in compliance with § 21.709 of the rules must be shifted to frequencies assigned to the CAR service. While these decisions are grounded in equitable considerations, we would at the same time prefer that the CAR licensee be the owner of the CATV or a cooperative enterprise wholly owned by CATV owners or operators. Applicants transferring from the common carrier service are encouraged to apply on this basis, where no undue business disruption would result. Moreover, the exemption from the requirement for ownership of a CATV system or participation in a CATV cooperative will not be extended to new applicants in the CAR service, since they do not possess similar equities. For similar reasons, the exception permitting transferring common carrier licensees to operate in the CAR service on other than a cost sharing, nonprofit basis, will not be extended to other applicants in the CAR service.

30. In view of all the foregoing, we conclude that §§ 21.700 and 21.709 of our rules and regulations should be amended as set forth in Appendix C below. The amended rules will enable us to execute our functions more effectively, and utilize our staff more efficiently, by reducing the time required to process applications for facilities to relay television signals to CATV systems. Application backlogs resulting from case-by-case consideration of questionable showings of public need have caused action to be delayed on practically all subsequent common carrier microwave applications, thus subjecting important public services to delay. The amended rules should assist materially our efforts to eliminate such backlogs. Our action herein also is a step toward a more equitable and effective use of the limited radio frequencies which can be made available for the transmission of television broadcast signals to CATV systems. Moreover, the amended rules provide a reasonable transition period for those current common carrier licensees, who may more appropriately utilize CAR service frequencies, to shift their operations to such frequencies. In this connection, we note that no one has challenged the reasonableness of the period of transition, whereby licensees electing to transfer to the CAR service may continue to use the common carrier frequencies until February 1, 1971.

B. Part III—Non-common carrier frequency reallocation for CATV use.

1. INTERIM ALLOCATION AND TECHNICAL STANDARDS

31. In Part III of this proceeding, we proposed to amend our rules to reallocate certain frequencies available for use by non-common carrier microwave stations to relay television signals to CATV systems, and to establish a new Community Antenna Relay (CAR) service. Private CATV microwave relay stations are now licensed in the Business Radio Service in the 12200–12700 Mc/s band. Specifically, it was proposed to license private CATV microwave stations only in the lower half of the adjacent 12700-13200 Mc/s band, which is presently allocated to television auxiliary services, including television pick-up, intercity relay and studio-transmitter link (STL) stations. The CAR service would, under the proposal, share the frequencies 12700-12950 Mc/s with intercity relay, STL Stations, and television pick-up stations, with television pick-up stations prohibited from causing harmful interference to the other stations. Existing licensees in the Business Radio Service would be accorded a transition period until February 1, 1971, before being required to shift their operations to frequencies in the CAR service.

32. We proposed this reallocation as a matter of sound spectrum planning. As set forth in pars. 20-22 of the Notice, the 12200-12700 Mc/s band is allocated for use by international control stations and operational fixed stations in the Safety and Special Radio Services for point-to-point private communications systems. This is the lowest band available for all operational fixed stations in the Business Radio Service (except for some closed circuit educational television systems) and for all intracity and local operation of other Safety and Special Radio licensees (except those of Public Safety organizations and except for control and repeater stations). The eligible potential users in the Business Radio Service are numerous, including such business activities as banks, department stores, insurance companies, supermarkets and other chain store operators, all of whom have indicated to the Commission a potential need for private microwave communications facilities. Allocation of Frequencies in the Bands Above 890 Mc/s, Docket No. 11866, 27 F.C.C. 395; 29 F.C.C. 825. Other typical potential users of the 12200-12700 Mc/s band include educational institutions (for closed circuit educational television and relay systems), railroads (for terminal area operations), pipelines (for terminal and short-hop links of their transcontinental microwave systems), and power and other utility companies (for short-hop and intracity systems).

33. While CATV systems are presently one of the numerous enterprises eligible in the Business Radio Service to use frequencies in the 12200-12700 Mc/s band, we deemed it appropriate to give consideration to a possible reallocation because of the rapid increase in the number of such systems,¹⁴ their extensive frequency usage, and the potential frequency requirements of other eligible users in the 12200-12700 Mc/s band. It is true, of course, as pointed out in many of the comments, that there is no present congestion in the 12200-12700 Mc/s band. However, it is significant that of the 235 transmitters now authorized in this band, 151 or 64 percent are devoted to serving CATV systems (NCTA comments, p. 52). Moreover, applications for additional frequencies for CATV use continue to be filed at an increasing rate.

34. We do not think it consistent with sound spectrum management to permit one of numerous eligible users in a band to preempt so large a proportion of the available frequencies to the possible prejudice of future use by other applicants. The 12200-12700 Mc/s band has been available for private communications only since 1960 (with some exceptions). The number of authorizations for non-CATV use is growing, and we expect that demands for frequencies in this band will increase in the future. Moreover, in the lower operational fixed microwave bands on up to and including the 6575-6875 Mc/s band (which are used by public safety organizations, etc.), there are now pockets of congestion in various geographic areas and additional assignments in these areas will tend to be accommodated in the 12200-12700 Mc/s band.

35. As we stressed in the Notice, par. 40, it is important to plan now, before the pertinent bands become congested, how best to accommodate the future spectrum needs of CATV systems and other microwave users. The fact that CATV needs are presently growing at a much more rapid pace than those of other users makes action in advance of an actual crisis all the more imperative. Should a large number of CATV authorizations be permitted in the 12200-12700 Mc/s band, the disruption in any future reallocation necessitated by the pressure of competing demands for spectrum space would be far greater. And, it might then be necessary to accommodate CATV microwave stations in a much higher band because of intervening growth in the bands closer to the 12200-12700 Mc/s band.

36. Under the circumstances, we believe that the public interest would be better served by establishing a separate CAR service in the 12700-13200 Mc/s television auxiliary band at this time. These frequencies are adjacent to the 12200-12700 Mc/s band. There is presently no congestion, and the growth potential appears comparatively less. The television auxiliary band is a more appropriate location for CATV microwave relay stations for other reasons. As was stated in the Notice, CATV systems are part of the nation's television service and have an interrelationship with television broadcast service. See also, First Report and Order in Docket Nos. 14895 and 15233, 38 FCC 683; Notice of Inquiry and Notice of Proposed Rule Making in Docket No. 15971, FCC 65-334, 30 F.R. 6078. Since the licensing of CATV relay stations must be coordinated with our responsibilities in the television broadcasting field, the two services should be administered by the same bureau within the Commission, i.e., the Broadcast Bureau. Thus, the reallocation would improve the present situation whereby the licensing of CATV microwave facilities in the Business Radio Service is administered by the Safety and Special Radio Services Bureau, and the licensing of television broadcast and auxiliary facilities is administered by the Broadcast Bureau.

37. The proposed rules provide for the licensing of CAR stations only in the 12700-12950 Mc/s portion of the 12700-13200 Mc/s band. The proposed limitation to one half of the television auxiliary band, or 250 Mc/s, is for two reasons. First, in Part IV of the rule making we are exploring the question of whether it is technically feasible for microwave stations to provide satisfactory service to CATVs with carrier spacings of 12.5 Mc/s, rather than the 25 Mc/s now commonly used, and thus to deliver the same number of video channels, in half the allocated spectrum space, as they could with the wider spacings in a 500 Mc/s allocation. In addition, the Commission is concerned as to whether the entire 12700-13200 Mc/s band might be preempted by CAR licensees at particular geographic points, leaving no frequencies available in this band for television auxiliary use or making such use by other licensees much more difficult from an engineering standpoint.

38. Some of the comments on Part III claim that the proposed allocation of 250 Mc/s is inadequate and that no reallocation action should be taken until the technical standards involved in Part IV have been determined. It is obviously impossible for us to reach any decision at this stage, prior to the receipt and full consideration of comments on these matters, as to how much of the band will ultimately be allocated for CATV use or what number of frequencies would be adequate. However, as an interim measure until Part IV is resolved, the CAR service will be placed in the lower half of the television auxiliary band on a primary co-equal basis with intercity relay and STL Stations (with television pickup stations having secondary status). The interim technical standards for CAR operation will be the same as those presently governing television auxiliary stations in the band.

39. We do not believe that this course of action is inequitable or will work an economic hardship on existing CATV microwave licensees or future new applicants. Existing licensees in the Business Radio Service may remain on their authorized frequencies and seek modifications of their existing facilities in that service until February 1, 1971. They will also continue to operate under the technical standards governing the Business Radio Service as long as they are using frequencies in the 12200-12700 Mc/s band. Since the total amount of the CAR allocation and the ultimate technical standards for the CAR service will be determined long before February 1, 1971, the fact that our present action is taken in advance of these determinations will have no practical effect on existing licensees in the Business Radio Service. Such licensees will have had a full opportunity to be heard on the adequacy of a 250 Mc/s allocation and the proposed technical standards for the CAR service in the proceedings on Part IV before rules are adopted which would affect their operations after February 1, ¹⁴ See Notice of Inquiry and Notice of Proposed Rule Making in Docket No. 15971, F.C.C. 65-334, 30 F.R. 6078.

1971. Moreover, as set forth in pars. 25-29 above, licensees transferring to the CAR service from the Domestic Public Point-to-Point Microwave Radio Service need not make the election accorded by § 21.709(b) of the appended rules until sixty days after a Report and Order on Parts II and IV of this proceeding and may utilize common carrier frequencies under the technical standards governing those frequencies until February 1, 1971. Thus, such licensees likewise will have had an opportunity to be heard in full on the unresolved matters at issue in Part IV of this proceeding before making any election or shifting their operations to CAR frequencies.

40. Since the CAR frequencies are adjacent to those now available in the Business Radio Service, the reallocation should be of little consequence to new applicants. We expect that 250 Mc/s will be sufficient to meet the needs of most new applicants during the interim period. In the event that the interim allocation does not appear adequate in some instances the question of a possible accommodation on adjacent frequencies will be considered on a case-by-case basis. Thus, we would give favorable consideration to a request by any applicant for authority to operate under either of the technical standards alternatively proposed in Part IV, in order to maximize the number of video channels which could be delivered within a 250 Mc/s allocation. In the alternative, upon an appropriate showing, we would consider requests for a waiver of the rule to permit use of such adjacent frequencies in the upper portion of the 12700-13200 Mc/s band as might be required to supplement the interim CAR allocation.

41. Potential applicants have been on notice since this proceeding was instituted in August 1964 that the Commission was considering the technical standards proposed in Part IV and that grants would be made subject to any rules adopted. Thus, all new applications since that time have been filed with knowledge that the ultimate technical standards are uncertain and that operational changes may be required to conform to whatever standards are adopted. Our present action changes this situation only in one respect. Whereas grants made since August 1964 in the Business Radio Service come within the February 1, 1971, transition period, new grants made in the CAR Service after the effective date of this order will be subject to the provisions of our further Report and Order in Part IV of this proceeding as to the time when the ultimate technical standards will become effective.

42. We need not decide now when such ultimate technical standards will be applied to CAR applicants granted in the period between the effective date of this Order and the conclusion of Part IV. Such applicants may have an opportunity to purchase some items of equipment which can be converted from operation under the interim standards to operation under the proposed standards, and thus to minimize the cost of any conversion which may ultimately be required. If major changes in authorized systems should become necessary, we anticipate that a suitable amortization period will be provided.

43. In light of all the foregoing, we conclude that the public interest would be best served by establishing the CAR service in the 12700-12950 Mc/s portion of the 12700-13200 Mc/s band at this time, and that it is reasonable and feasible to take such action in advance of a resolution of Part IV of this proceeding. Accordingly, on and after the effective date of the order herein, applications for new facilities used to relay television and radio signals to CATV systems will not be accepted in the Business Radio Service. Pending applications on file prior to the effective date will be processed in the Business Radio Service. We turn now to the comments of the parties on various substantive provisions of the proposed rules to govern the CAR service.

2. SUBSTANTIVE PROVISIONS OF THE CAR SERVICE RULES

Cooperative or contractual CAR service; interconnection

44. Even where opposition was otherwise expressed to the rule making involved in Parts I and III of this proceeding, the comments generally favored the provision for cooperative or contractual service set forth in par. 28 of the Notice and § 74.1031 of the proposed CAR service rules. Proposed § 74.1031 states that CAR stations are "essentially intended for use by owners of" CATV systems to "relay television programs from the point of television broadcast reception to CATV distribution systems," but that "CAR licensees are not precluded from interconnecting their facilities with those of CAR or common carrier licensees." Paragraph (b) of the same section provides:

The program material transmitted over a community antenna relay system shall be intended for use by one or more CATV systems owned and controlled by the licensee of the community antenna relay station. The same program material may be supplied to other CATV systems. However, a community antenna relay station may not be operated solely for the purpose of supplying program material to CATV systems owned by other than the licensee of the community antenna relay station, and may not be operated on a common carrier for hire basis.

45. As set forth in par. 28 of the Notice, it was contemplated that CAR licensees "would be permitted, but not required" to serve other than their own CATV systems and to interconnect their facilities with those of CAR or other licensees. While the proposal constitutes a departure from present practice in the Business Radio Service,¹⁵ it seemed worth exploring for the CAR service. The provision for cooperative or contractual service might conserve spectrum space by reducing the number of CAR authorizations and frequencies required to meet the needs of CATV systems.

46. Several parties commenting in favor of the proposal urged us to go further and not merely permit interconnection, but require CAR or common carrier licensees to interconnect upon request. We do not think it appropriate to incorporate such a provision in the rules governing CAR licensees. Requiring CAR licensees to serve other than their own CATV systems or to interconnect, simply upon request, would be inconsistent with the prohibition against operating in the CAR service on a common carrier for hire basis. Any such operations should be conducted in the Domestic Public Point-to-Point Microwave Service under the traditional safeguards for common carrier service to the public. Our proposal to allow cooperative or contractual service contemplates that this may be undertaken where a mutually satisfactory cost-sharing or cooperative arrangement has been reached through negotiation by the persons concerned.

47. We shall accordingly leave it up to the individual CAR applicant or licensee to decide initially whether he wishes to engage in cooperative or contractual operations, or to interconnect with other CAR licensees, subject only to the usual qualification that CAR operations must be conducted consistently with the public interest. The refusal of a CAR licensee to cooperate or interconnect on reasonable terms might, in some instances, raise a relevant public interest question for consideration in license renewal proceedings, e.g., if common carrier service were unavailable in the particular area and the remaining frequencies in the CAR service available for assignment in the area were insufficient to accommodate fully a new proposed use.¹⁶

48. With respect to interconnection between CAR licensees and common carriers, a different situation may prevail. We recognize that common carrier interconnection with CAR licensees, upon a request for common carrier service, might avoid unnecessary duplication of facilities and hence achieve a more efficient utilization of spectrum space. It would obviously be undesirable, if not entirely impracticable, to authorize frequencies for the use of each of a large number of CAR licensees in order to permit each to relay entirely over its own facilities the same signals proposed to be relayed by the others over substantially the same routes. For example, we could not authorize frequencies to each of hundreds of CATV systems located west of the Mississippi for private, duplicating microwave facilities into Chicago, New York or other major cities in order to obtain the signals of independent television stations in those cities. The long-distance relay of television signals should usually be on common carrier facilities.¹⁷ And, ordinarily, CAR systems should not duplicate each other's facilities. It may be that CAR facilities would be more appropriately utilized to forward signals to CATV systems located away from the common carrier routes or to obtain relatively nearby "off-the-air" television broadcast signals.

49. At present the tariffs of the miscellaneous common carriers do not prohibit such interconnection. However, the tariffs of those landline carriers who offer television program transmission service do generally prohibit the interconnection of their facilities with those of others. Although we recognize the problems presented by the comments in this respect, we are unable to resolve them definitively in the context of this rule making. The matter does, however, appear worth exploring. We shall consider such problems, and, if further action appears to be required, we will take such further action as may be appropriate under the circumstances.

50. Apart from the matter of interconnection, a further question was raised in the comments with respect to the language in proposed § 74.1031(a) that CAR stations are "essentially intended for use by the owners of community antenna television (CATV) distribution systems to relay television programs from the point of television broadcast reception to CATV distribution systems." One party suggests that the word "essentially" implies that CAR stations may be employed by other than CATV owners for uses other than service to CATV systems. We agree that the section needs clarification as to the basis on which cooperative arrangements will be permitted in the CAR service. Accordingly, we are revising proposed §§ 74.1031 and 74.1033 (§§ 74.1030 and 74.1031 in Appendix C) to provide explicitly that CAR licenses may be issued to CATV owners or operators and to cooperative enterprises wholly owned by CATV owners or operators. As revised, § 74.1030 further provides that the program material transmitted over a CAR system shall be solely for use by one or more CATV systems and that the CAR system shall supply program material to CATV systems only in the following circumstances:

(1) Where the licensee of the CAR system is owner or operator of the CATV systems supplied with program material; or

(2) Where the licensee of the CAR system supplies program material to CATV systems either without charge or on a non-profit, cost-sharing basis pursuant to a written contract between the parties involved which provides that the CAR licensee shall have exclusive control over the operation of the community antenna relay stations licensed to him and that contributions to capital and operating expenses are accepted only on a cost-sharing, non-profit basis, pro-rated on an equitable basis among all CATV systems being supplied with program material in whole or in part. Records showing the cost of the service and its non-profit, cost-sharing nature shall be maintained by the CAR licensee and held available for inspection by the Commission.

Provisions have also been added which require the filing of a notification with the Commission thirty days prior to commencing any service not specified in the license application or in a prior notification (§ 74.1030(e)), and the filing of annual reports with the Commission with respect to any contractual service on a cost-sharing, non-profit basis (§ 74.1030(f)).

51. However, we are making two exceptions to the foregoing provisions and are proposing further rule making with respect to a third. First, for the reasons discussed in pars. 25-29 above, a new paragraph (g) has been added to § 74.1030 giving grandfather rights in the CAR service to licensees transferring from the common carrier service. This paragraph states that the provisions of § 74.1030 (b) and (d) and of § 74.1031 (a) shall not apply to a licensee who has been licensed in the CAR service pursuant to § 21.709, except that § 74.1030 (d) shall apply to facilities added or CATV systems first served after February 1, 1966. Otherwise, the requirements contained in these provisions will pertain in full to grants in the CAR service.

52. Second, one party urges that the rules should clearly state that the new service is intended for the relay of both visual and related audio signals from television broadcast stations to CATV's and that not all portions of the proposed rules reflect this, some referring only to video signals. The suggestion is worthwhile. In addition, it is urged that, since some microwave relay stations now carry signals of standard or FM broadcast stations to CATV systems, the CAR service should provide for the relay of such signals. We agree. Since we are providing a new "home" for private CATV microwave operations, the home should accommodate all of the signals which CATV's presently distribute to the public. The rules which we adopt are in line with the foregoing suggestions.¹⁸

53. And, third, it has occurred to us that spectrum space might be conserved, and duplication of facilities avoided, in some instances if CATV systems or television broadcast stations, which operate in fairly close proximity and obtain program material by microwave relay, were permitted to supply the same program material to each other and to interconnect their relay facilities. In the First Report and Order in Docket Nos. 14895 and 15233, 38 FCC 683, we determined that the public interest is best served when CATV systems and television broadcast stations operate in a complementary and coordinated manner to the end of achieving maximum television service to all people of the United States (pars. 40-48). There may be instances where a supplementary signal obtained through CAR facilities could appropriately be supplied to television stations located on or near the microwave route and thus obviate the necessity of having the station build duplicate intercity relay facilities over much or all of the same route in order to obtain the same signal. Conversely, if a television station has obtained program material by intercity relay facilities, there may be instances where the same program material could appropriately be supplied to CATV systems located in the vicinity of the microwave route (possibly through interconnection with CAR facilities) e.g., in areas where "off-the-air" pickup of the station's broadcast signal is not feasible. Cooperative arrangements on a cost-sharing basis might result in greater over-all television service to the public, at less cost to both the CATV operator and the television broadcast licensee. Moreover, since the CAR service is sharing frequencies used by television intercity relay stations, cooperation to avoid duplication of facilities might achieve more efficient spectrum usage or even prove necessary to accommodate all frequency requirements in a particular geographic area within the available spectrum space.

54. Since no proposal of this nature was made in the Notice of Proposed Rule Making in this proceeding, we have not had the benefit of the comments of interested persons and are not in a position to adopt rules at this time. However, the matter seems worthy of inquiry. Accordingly, notice is hereby given of proposed rule making to this effect, and interested persons are invited to submit comments. It is contemplated that any rules adopted would be along lines similar to the rules adopted herein for voluntary, cost-sharing service to CATV systems owned by other than the CAR licensee, and that public interest considerations of the nature discussed in par. 47 above would apply. In addition to comments on this matter, interested persons may address themselves to the provisions of § 74.1030 of the rules (Appendix C) concerning cooperative arrangements among CATV systems. In light of any such comments, amendments to this section may be made by further order of the Commission in this proceeding.

¹⁷ In discussing this aspect of the long-distance relay of television signals to CATV systems in this proceeding, it is not intended to pre-judge or affect the issues in Part II (pars. 39-58) of the Notice of Inquiry and Notice of Proposed Rule Making in Docket No. 15971, FCC 65-334, 30 F.R. 6078. We are simply concerned here with the establishment of a frequency allocation structure that would not preclude accommodation of any future relay service to CATV's which might be found in the public interest. If long-distance relays were to be authorized under appropriate conditions, an efficient allocation basis might be a backbone structure of trunk routes on common carrier facilities interconnected with side spur facilities (authorized either to carrier or CAR licensees) to distribute the signals to individual CATV systems.

3. OTHER MATTERS

55. In footnote 4 of the Notice we stated that while we were concerned about the possible adverse impact that grants for microwave facilities serving CATV systems might have on local television stations, the problem was being considered in Docket Nos. 14895 and 15233 and thus would not be considered in this proceeding.¹⁹ In the meantime, on April 23, 1965, we issued the First Report and Order in these dockets (38 FCC 683) adopting rules with respect to the carriage and nonduplication of local stations on microwave-served CATV systems. The First Report and Order recognized the pendency of this proceeding and the proposed creation of the CAR service, stating (par. 160): "If such a proposal is adopted, we will apply the rules here adopted to the new CARS [sic] Service without further rule making proceedings."

56. Accordingly, in place of the general provision in proposed § 74.1033, we will incorporate in the CAR service rules the substantive provisions of the rules adopted in Docket Nos. 14895 and 15233.²⁰ Consistent with the intent of pars. 6 and 161 of that First Report and Order, these provisions of the CAR rules will be effective on and after November 22, 1965, as to all applications in the CAR service filed on or after November 22, 1965, with the following exceptions. Such provisions will not be effective as to existing operations of licensees transferring to the CAR service pursuant to § 21.709(b) of the rules until such time as they are made effective as to existing miscellaneous common carrier operations in the Domestic Public Point-to-Point Microwave Radio Service, unless §§ 21.710—21.714 are already effective as to such transferring licensee. Nor will such provisions be effective, pending further order of the Commission, where a transferring licensee serving an affiliated or related CATV system files an application for assignment of license or transfer of control merely in order that the CAR licensee may be the owner of the CATV system, unless §§ 21.710—21.714 are already effective as to such transferring licensee. (See par. 29 above.)

CONCLUSION

57. Authority for the rules adopted and the rule making instituted herein is contained in Sections 4(i) and (j), 303(a), (b), (c), and (r), and 307(b) of the Communications Act of 1934, as amended.

58. Accordingly, It is ordered, This 13th day of October 1965, That Parts 2, 21, 74 and 91 of the Commission's Rules and Regulations are amended as set forth in Appendix C below, effective November 22, 1965: Provided, That ¹⁹ As further stated in footnote 4 of the Notice, this proceeding is not in any way intended to be concerned with, or to affect, the question of whether there is a property right in the broadcast signals carried. See also, First Report and Order in Docket Nos. 14895 and 15233, par. 55, footnote 32, par. 159.

²⁰ This will necessitate some renumbering of the proposed rules.

§§ 74.1031(c) and 74.1033 of Part 74 are not effective, pending further order of the Commission, as to applications filed in the Community Antenna Relay Service pursuant to § 21.709(b) of Part 21, unless §§ 21.710—21.714 are already effective as to such applicants.

59. It is further ordered, That this proceeding is terminated as to the amendments to Parts 21 and 91 of the Commission's Rules and Regulations adopted herein, but is not terminated with respect to the further amendments to Part 21 proposed in section II of the Notice of Proposed Rule Making in this docket.

60. It is further ordered, That this proceeding is not terminated insofar as the rules adopted in Part 74, Subpart J, of the Commission rules and regulations are concerned, and that in light of comments and reply comments pertaining to section IV of the Notice of Proposed Rule Making in this docket and on the matters involved in the Further Notice herein, amendments to these rules may be made.

61. It is further ordered, That the various requests in the pleadings listed in Appendix B below, to the extent that they may not have been granted in part or denied in the Notice of Inquiry and Notice of Proposed Rule Making in Docket No. 15971, FCC 65-334, 30 F.R. 6078, are otherwise denied.

62. All interested persons are invited to file written comments on the rule amendments proposed in pars. 53-54 on or before November 15, 1965, and reply comments on or before December 6, 1965. In reaching its decision on these matters, the Commission may also take into account any other relevant information before it, in addition to the comments invited by this further Notice.

63. In accordance with the provisions of § 1.419 of the Commission's rules and regulations, an original and 15 copies of all comments, replies, pleadings, briefs, or other documents filed in this proceeding shall be furnished the Commission.

Appendix C

I. Part 2 is amended as follows:

1. Section 2.1 is amended by adding the following definitions in appropriate alphabetical sequence:

§ 2.1 Definitions.

Community antenna relay service. A fixed service, the stations of which are used for the transmission of television and related audio signals, and signals of standard and FM broadcasting stations, to a terminal point from which the signals are distributed to the public by cable.

Community antenna relay station. A fixed station in the community antenna relay service.

2. In § 2.106, the Table of Frequency Allocations is amended in columns 7, 8, and 9 for the frequency bands 12200-12700 and 12700-13200 Mc/s, and two new NG footnotes are added as follows:

§ 2.106 Table of frequency allocations.

Band Mc/s	Service	Class of station
***	***	***
12200-12700 (NG8)	FIXED-----	International control.
(NG62)		Operational fixed.
12700-12950	FIXED-----	Community Antenna
	MOBILE-----	Relay.
		Television Intercity
		Relay
		Television Pickup
		(NG53)
12950-13200	FIXED-----	Television STL.
(NG11)	MOBILE-----	Television Pickup.
		Television STL.

NG52 Stations used to relay television signals to community antenna television systems, which are authorized to operate in the band 12,200-12,700 Mc/s on November 22, 1965, may continue to be authorized to so operate until February 1, 1971, under the conditions specified in that license.

NG53 In the band 12,700-12,950 Mc/s, television pickup stations shall not cause harmful interference to community antenna relay, television intercity relay and television STL stations.

II. Part 21—Domestic Public Radio Services (Other Than Maritime Mobile) is amended as follows:

1. Section 21.700 is amended to read as follows:

§ 21.700 Eligibility.

Authorizations for stations in this service will be issued to existing and proposed communication common carriers. Applications will be granted only in cases where it is shown that (a) the applicant is legally, financially, technically and otherwise qualified to render the proposed service, (b) there are frequencies available to enable the applicant to render a satisfactory service, and (c) the public interest, convenience or necessity would be served by a grant thereof. In addition, applications for stations to be used to relay television signals to community antenna television systems must include a showing that at least 50 percent of the customers (on the microwave system involved), including customers of any interconnecting carrier(s), receiving applicant's service are unrelated and unaffiliated with the applicant, and that the proposed usage by such customers, in terms of hours of use and channels delivered, constitutes at least 50 percent of the usage of applicant's microwave system. Applications which do not contain the showing required by this section will be returned as unacceptable for filing.

2. Section 21.709 is revised to read:

§ 21.709 Renewal of station licenses.

(a) An application for renewal of a license of a station in the Domestic Public Point-to-Point Microwave Radio Service used to relay television signals to community antenna television systems must include a showing that at least 50 percent of the customers (on the microwave system involved), including customers of any interconnecting carrier(s), receiving applicant's service are unrelated and unaffiliated with the applicant, and that the usage by such customers, in terms of hours of use and channels delivered, constitutes at least 50 percent of the usage of applicant's microwave system. Applications which do not contain the showing required by this section will be returned as unacceptable for filing.

(b) Applicants whose licenses expired on February 1, 1961, or 1963, and who have renewal applications pending before the Commission, or presently authorized common carrier licensees whose licenses will expire on February 1, 1966, who serve affiliated or related customers may become licensees in the Community Antenna Relay Service upon application therein and be granted a waiver of the Commission's rules so that they may be authorized to continue to use common carrier frequencies under the technical standards applicable to such frequencies until February 1, 1971, if they elect to do so. Such election must be made and an application filed in the Community Antenna Relay Service within sixty (60) days after the issuance of a Report and Order on Parts II and IV of Docket No. 15586. Pending such election time, renewal applications which do not comply with the provisions of paragraph (a) of this section will be granted only for such period of time as is necessary to preserve the opportunity for election. The license issued in the Community Antenna Relay Service will not be renewable on the common carrier frequencies. Applications for renewal of such licenses shall be filed for frequencies assigned to the Community Antenna Relay Service.

III. Part 74 is amended as follows:

1. Section 74.1(c) is amended by adding a new subparagraph (4) to read as follows:

§ 74.1 Services covered by this part.

(c) * * *

(4) Community antenna relay stations (Subpart J).

2. Section 74.15 is amended by adding a new subparagraph (g) to read as follows:

§ 74.15 License period.

(g) Licenses for community antenna relay stations will be issued for a period not to exceed five years. On and after February 1, 1966, licenses for community antenna relay stations ordinarily will be issued for a period expiring on February 1, 1971, and, when regularly renewed, at five year intervals thereafter. When a license is granted subsequent to the last renewal date for the community antenna relay class of stations, the license will be issued only for the unexpired period of the current license term of such class. The license renewal date applicable to this class of stations may be varied as necessary to permit the orderly processing of renewal applications, and individual station licenses within the class may be granted or renewed for a shorter period of time than that generally prescribed for the class, if the Commission finds that public interest, convenience, and necessity would be served by such action.

3. Section 74.602(f) is amended to read as follows:

§ 74.602 Frequency assignment.

(f) The use of frequencies in the bands 1990-2110 Mc/s, 6875-7125 Mc/s and 12,950-13,200 Mc/s by television intercity relay stations shall be on a secondary basis, i.e., subject to the condition that no harmful interference is caused to stations operating in accordance with the table of frequency allocations in § 2.106 of this chapter. In the band 12,700-12,950 Mc/s, television pickup stations shall not cause harmful interference to community antenna relay, television intercity relay and television STL stations.

4. A new Subpart J is added to read as follows:

SUBPART J—COMMUNITY ANTENNA RELAY STATIONS

DEFINITIONS AND ALLOCATION OF FREQUENCIES

§ 74.1001 Definitions.

(a) Community Antenna Relay (CAR) Station. A fixed station used for the transmission of television signals and related audio signals, and signals of standard and FM broadcast stations, from the point of reception to a terminal point from which the signals are distributed to the public by cable.

(b) Attended operation. Operation of a station by a qualified operator on duty at the place where the transmitting apparatus is located with the transmitter in plain view of the operator.

(c) Unattended operation. Operation of a station by automatic means whereby the transmitter is turned on and off and performs its functions without attention by a qualified operator.

(d) Remote control operation. Operation of a station by a qualified operator on duty at a control position from which the transmitter is not visible but which control position is equipped with suitable control and telemetering circuits so that the essential functions that could be performed at the transmitter can also be performed from the control point.

(e) As used in §§ 74.1031 and 74.1033, the term "community antenna television system" ("CATV system") means any facility which receives and amplifies the signals transmitting programs broadcast by one or more television stations and redistributes such signals by wire or cable to subscribing members of the public, but such terms shall not include (i) any such facility which serves fewer than fifty subscribers, or (ii) any such facility which serves only the residents of one or more apartment dwellings under common ownership, control, or management, and commercial establishments located on the premises of such an apartment house.

(2) Television station; television broadcast station. The terms "television station" and "television broadcast station" mean any television broadcasting station operating on a channel regularly assigned to its community by § 73.606 of this chapter but shall not include boosters, repeaters or translator television stations, unless such facilities carry the programming of a station within whose Grade B contour a relevant CATV system operates or proposes to operate, in whole or in part, in which event such facilities shall be deemed extensions of the originating station.

(3) Principal community contour. The term "principal community contour" means the signal contour which a television station is required to place over its entire principal community by § 73.685(a) of this chapter.

(4) Grade A and Grade B contours. The terms "Grade A contour" and "Grade B contour" mean the field intensity contours defined in § 73.683(a) of this chapter.

(5) Network programming. The term "network programming" means the programming supplied by a national television network organization.

(6) Substantially duplicated. The term "substantially duplicated" means regularly duplicated by the network programming of one or more other stations, singly or collectively, in a normal week during the hours of 6 to 11 p.m., local time, for a total of 14 or more hours.

(7) Priority. The term "priority" means the priority among stations established in § 74.1033.

(8) Independent Station. The term "independent station" means a television station which is not affiliated with any national television network organization.

§ 74.1003 Frequency assignments.

(a) Pending a final decision in Docket No. 15586, the following frequencies may be assigned to community antenna relay stations:

Mc/s
12700-12725	12825-12850
12725-12750	12850-12875
12750-12775	12875-12900
12775-12800	12900-12925
12800-12825	12925-12950

(b) In the band 12,700-12,950 Mc/s, television pickup stations shall not cause harmful interference to CAR, television intercity relay, and television STL stations.

(c) An application for a CAR station shall be specific with regard to the frequency or frequencies requested.

§ 74.1005 Interference.

(a) Applicants for community antenna relay stations shall endeavor to select an assignable frequency or frequencies which will be least likely to result in interference to other licensees in the same area.

(b) Applicants for community antenna relay stations shall take full advantage of all known techniques, such as the geometric arrangement of transmitters and receivers, the use of minimum power required to provide the needed service, and the use of highly directive transmitting and receiving antenna systems, to prevent interference to the reception of television STL, television intercity relay, and other CAR stations.

ADMINISTRATIVE PROCEDURE

§ 74.1007 Cross-reference.

See §§ 74.11 to 74.16.

LICENSING POLICIES

§ 74.1030 Purpose and permissible service.

(a) Community antenna relay stations are authorized to relay television programs (visual and audio), and standard and FM broadcast station programs, from the point of reception of the broadcast to a point of reception by or in connection with community antenna television systems (CATV). CAR licensees may interconnect their facilities with those of other CAR or common carrier licensees.

(b) Community antenna relay station licenses may be issued to CATV owners or operators and to cooperative enterprises wholly owned by CATV owners or operators.

(c) Program material shall be transmitted over a community antenna relay system solely for use by one or more CATV systems.

(d) Community antenna relay systems shall supply program material to CATV systems only in the following circumstances:

(1) Where the licensee of the CAR is owner or operator of the CATV systems supplied with program material; or

(2) Where the licensee of the CAR supplies program material to CATV systems either without charge or on a non-profit, cost-sharing basis pursuant to a written contract between the parties involved which provides that the CAR licensee shall have exclusive control over the operation of the community antenna relay stations licensed to him and that contributions to capital and operating expenses are accepted only on a cost-sharing, nonprofit basis, prorated on an equitable basis among all CATV systems being supplied with program material in whole or in part. Records showing the cost of the service and its nonprofit, cost-sharing nature shall be maintained by the CAR licensee and held available for inspection by the Commission.

(e) A licensee shall file a notification with the Commission thirty (30) days prior to supplying program material to any CATV system that has not been specified in its license application or in a prior notification to the Commission containing the following information:

(1) A copy of the contract between the parties pursuant to which the program material will be supplied;

(2) Network and station origin of the signals to be transmitted;

(3) Location of the point at which reception will be made;

(4) Location of intermediate relay stations in the system through which the signal will be transmitted;

(5) Location of the relay station which will supply the program material to the CATV system;

(6) Name of each community to be served by the CATV system;

(7) Current number of subscribers of the CATV system; and

(8) Identity of the owner or owners of the CATV system.

The CAR licensee may institute the service described in such notification thirty days after filing unless the Commission during that period notifies the licensee that the information supplied is inadequate or that the proposed service is not authorized under these rules, and the licensee shall then have the right to amend or file another notification to remedy the inadequacy or defect and to institute the service thirty days thereafter, or at such earlier date as the Commission may set upon finding that the inadequacy or defect has been remedied.

(f) Each licensee providing program material to a CATV system pursuant to paragraph (d) (2) of this section shall file an annual report with the Commission within ninety days of the close of its fiscal year containing:

(1) A financial statement of such operations in sufficient detail to show compliance with the requirements of this section;

(2) The names of those who have shared the use of the licensed facilities;

(3) A brief statement as to the use of the facilities made by each person sharing the use and an estimate of the approximate percentage of use by each participant; and

(4) Any change in the items previously reported to the Commission in the application for the license or in a notification under this section.

(g) The provisions of paragraphs (b) and (d) of this section and § 74.1031(a) shall not apply to a licensee who has been licensed in the CAR service pursuant to § 21.709 of this chapter, except that paragraph (d) of this section shall apply with respect to facilities added or CATV systems first served after February 1, 1966.

§ 74.1031 Eligibility and contents of application.

(a) A license for a community antenna relay station will be issued only to the owner of a CATV system or to a cooperative enterprise wholly owned by CATV owners or operators upon a showing that applicant is qualified under the Communications Act of 1934, that frequencies are available for the proposed operation, and that the public interest, convenience and necessity will be served by a grant thereof.

(b) An application for a new community antenna relay station or for changes in the facilities of an existing station shall specify the call sign and location of any television, standard and FM broadcast station or stations to be received, the location of the point at which reception will be made, the number and location of any intermediate relay stations in the system, the location of the terminal receiving point(s) in the system, the name or names of the communities to be served by the CATV system or systems to which the programs will be delivered, the current number of subscribers of each such CATV system, and the name of any other CAR licensee to whom the same programs will be delivered through interconnection of facilities.

(c) An application for any authorization subject to § 74.1033 shall contain a statement that the applicant(s) have notified the licensee or permittee of any television broadcast station, within whose predicted Grade B contour the CATV system(s) served or to be served operate or will operate, in whole or in part, of the filing of the application. Such statement shall be supported by copies of the letters of notification directed to such television broadcast licensees or permittees. The notice shall include the fact of intended filing by the applicant(s), identification of each CATV system served or to be served under the authorization sought, identification of the community served or to be served by each such CATV system and the television, standard broadcast and FM station(s) whose programs will be distributed by each such CATV system.

NOTE 1: As used in § 74.1031(c), the term "predicted Grade B contour" means the field intensity contour defined in § 73.683(a) of this chapter, the location of which is determined exclusively by means of the calculations prescribed in § 73.684 of this chapter.

§ 74.1033 Licensing requirements.

Authorizations (including initial grants, modifications, assignments or transfers of control, and renewals) in the Community Antenna Relay Service to construct or operate point-to-point operational fixed stations to relay television signals to community antenna television systems (CATV systems), either directly or indirectly, will contain the following conditions:

(a) Stations required to be carried. Within the limits of its channel capacity, any such CATV system shall carry the signals of operating or subsequently authorized and operating television broadcast stations in the following order of priority, upon the request of the licensee or permittee of the relevant station:

(1) First, all commercial and non-commercial educational stations within whose principal community contours the systems operates, in whole or in part;

(2) Second, all commercial and non-commercial educational stations within whose Grade A contours the system operates, in whole or in part; and

(3) Third, all commercial and non-commercial educational stations within whose Grade B contour the system operates, in whole or in part.

(b) Exceptions. Notwithstanding the requirements of paragraph (a) of this section,

(1) The system need not carry the signal of any station, if (i) that station's network programming is substantially duplicated by one or more stations of higher priority and (ii) carrying it would, because of limited channel capacity, prevent the system from carrying the signal of an independent commercial station or a noncommercial educational station.

(2) In cases where (i) there are two or more signals of equal priority which substantially duplicate each other, and (ii) carrying all such signals would, because of limited channel capacity, prevent the system from carrying the signal of an independent commercial station or a noncommercial educational station, the system need not carry all such substantially duplicating signals, but may select among them to the extent necessary to preserve its ability to carry the signals of independent commercial or noncommercial educational stations.

(3) In cases where the system operates within the Grade B or higher priority contour of both a satellite station and its parent station, carriage of the signal of one of these stations will relieve the system of any obligation to carry the signal of the other.

(c) Special requirements in the event of non-carriage. Where the system does not carry the signals of one or more stations within whose Grade B or higher priority contour it operates, the system shall offer and maintain, for each subscriber, an adequate switching device to allow the subscriber to choose between cable and non-cable reception, unless the subscriber affirmatively indicates in writing that he does not desire this device.

(d) Manner of carriage. Where the signal of any station is required to be carried under this section:

(1) The signal shall be carried without material degradation in quality (within the limitations imposed by the technical state of the art);

(2) The signal shall, upon request of the station licensee or permittee, be carried on the system on the channel on which the station is transmitting (where practicable without material degradation); and

(3) The signal shall, upon the request of the station licensee or permittee, be carried on the system on no more than one channel.

(e) Stations entitled to program exclusivity. Any such CATV system which operates, in whole or in part, within the Grade B or higher priority contour of any commercial television broadcast station and which carries the signal of such station shall, upon request of the station licensee or permittee, maintain the station's exclusivity as a program outlet in the manner and to the extent specified in paragraph (f) of this section: Provided, That:

(1) The system is not required to maintain the exclusivity of the network programming of any such station if the system carries the signal(s) of one or more equal or higher priority stations (other than a satellite or parent of the station requesting exclusivity) which substantially duplicate the network programming of the station requesting exclusivity; and

(2) The system is not required to maintain the exclusivity of the nonnetwork programming of any such station if the system carries the signal(s) of one or more equal or higher priority stations (other than a satellite or parent of the station requesting exclusivity) which operates in what are normally and usually considered other markets for purposes of television program distribution.

(3) In cases where the system operates within the Grade B or higher priority contour of both a satellite station and its parent station, protection of the program exclusively of one of these stations will relieve the system of any obligation to protect the program exclusivity of the other.

(f) Program exclusivity; extent of protection. Where a station is entitled to program exclusivity, the CATV system shall, upon the request of the station licensee or permittee, refrain from duplicating any program broadcast by such station, simultaneously or within a period commencing 15 days prior to its broadcast by the station and ending 15 days after such broadcast, if the CATV operator has received notification from the requesting station of the date and time of its broadcast of the program and the date and time of any broadcast to be deleted, as soon as possible and in any event no later than 48 hours prior to the broadcast to be deleted.

(g) Exceptions. Notwithstanding the requirements of paragraph (f) of this section,

(1) The CATV system need not delete reception of a network program if, in so doing, it would leave available for reception by subscribers, at any time, less than two network programs (including those broadcast by any stations whose signals are being carried and whose program exclusivity is being protected pursuant to the requirements of this section);

(2) The system need not delete reception of a network program which is scheduled by the network between the hours of 6 and 11 p.m., Eastern Time, but is broadcast by the station requesting deletion, in whole or in part, outside of the period which would normally be considered prime time for network programming in the time zone involved; and

(3) The system need not delete reception of any program consisting of the broadcast coverage of a speech or other event as to which the time of presentation is of special significance, except where the program is being simultaneously broadcast by a station entitled to program exclusivity.

Note: Whether or not a particular station which does not present a significant amount of locally originated programming is a "satellite", as that term is used in § 74.1033, will be determined on the facts of the particular case.

§ 74.1035 Remote control operation.

(a) A community antenna relay station may be operated by remote control provided the following conditions are met:

(1) The transmitter and associated control system shall be installed and protected in a manner designed to prevent tampering or operation by unauthorized persons.

(2) An operator meeting the requirements of § 74.1073 shall be on duty at the remote control position and in actual charge thereof at all times when the station is in operation.

(3) Facilities shall be provided at the control position which will permit the operator to turn the transmitter on and off at will. The control position shall also be equipped with suitable devices for observing the overall characteristics of the transmissions and a carrier operated device which will give a continuous visual indication whenever the transmitting antenna is radiating a signal. The transmitting apparatus shall be inspected as often as may be necessary to insure proper operation.

(4) The control circuits shall be so designed and installed that short circuits, open circuits, other line faults, or any other cause which would result in loss of control of the transmitter will automatically cause the transmitter to cease radiating.

(b) An application for authority to construct a new station or to make changes in the facilities of an existing station and which proposes operation by remote control shall include an adequate showing of the manner of compliance with the requirements of this section.

§ 74.1037 Unattended operation.

(a) Unattended operation of a community antenna relay station will be permitted only if the following requirements are met:

(1) The transmitter and any associated control circuits shall be installed and protected in a manner designed to prevent tampering or operation by unauthorized persons.

(2) The transmitter shall be equipped with automatic circuits which will permit it to radiate only when a signal on the frequency which it is intended to retransmit is present at the input terminals of the apparatus.

(3) If the transmitting apparatus is located at a site which is not readily accessible at all hours and in all seasons, means shall be provided for turning the transmitter on and off at will from a location which can be reached promptly at all hours and in all seasons.

(4) Appropriate observations shall be made, at intervals not exceeding one hour during the period of its operation, at the receiving end of the circuit by an operator meeting the requirements of § 74.1073, who shall take immediate corrective action if any condition of improper operation is observed.

(5) The station licensee shall be responsible for the proper operation of the station, and all adjustments or tests during or coincident with the installation, servicing, or maintenance of the station which may affect its operation shall be performed by or under the immediate supervision and responsibility of a licensed operator as provided in § 74.1073.

(b) An application for authority to construct a new station or to make changes in the facilities of an existing station and which proposes unattended operation shall include an adequate showing as to the manner of compliance with the requirements of this section.

§ 74.1039 Power limitations.

The transmitter output power shall not be greater than necessary and, in any event, shall not exceed 5 watts.

§ 74.1041 Emissions and bandwidth.

Pending a final decision on Part IV of Docket No. 15586, the rule contained in § 74.637 shall govern emission and bandwidth in the CAR Service.

§ 74.1043 Antennas.

(a) Community antenna relay stations shall use directive transmitting antennas. The maximum beam width in the horizontal plane between half power points of the major lobe shall not exceed 3 degrees. Either vertical, horizontal, or rotating polarization may be employed. The Commission reserves the right to specify the polarization of the transmitted signal.

(b) The choice of receiving antennas is left to the discretion of the licensee. However, licensees will not be protected from interference which results from the lack of adequate antenna discrimination against unwanted signals.

EQUIPMENT

§ 74.1050 Equipment and installation.

(a) Pending a final decision in Docket No. 15586 with regard to bandwidth and channelling, no technical performance standards will be applied to CAR stations other than those of §§ 74.635, 74.661, and 74.1061 relating to bandwidth, frequency stability, and frequency tolerance.

(b) The installation of a community antenna relay station shall be made by or under the immediate supervision of a qualified engineer. Any tests or adjustments requiring the radiation of signals and which could result in improper operation shall be conducted by or under the immediate supervision of an operator holding a valid first- or second-class radiotelephone operator license.

(c) Simple repairs such as the replacement of tubes, fuses, or other plug-in components which require no particular skill may be made by an unskilled person. Repairs requiring replacement of attached components or the adjustment of critical circuits or corroborative measurements shall be made only by a person with the knowledge and skill to perform such tasks.

§ 74.1053 Equipment changes.

(a) Formal application is required for any of the following changes:

(1) Replacement of the transmitter as a whole, except replacement with an identical transmitter, or any change in equipment which could result in a change in the electrical characteristics or performance of the station.

(2) Any change in the transmitting antenna system including the direction of the main radiation lobe, directive pattern, antenna gain, or transmission line.

(3) Any change in the height of the antenna above ground, or any horizontal change in the location of the antenna.

(4) Any change in the transmitter control system.

(5) Any change in the location of the transmitter, except a move within the same building or upon the tower or mast.

(6) Any change in frequency assignment.

(7) Any change of authorized operation power.

(b) Other equipment changes not specifically referred to in paragraph (a) of this section may be made at the discretion of the licensee, provided that the Engineer in Charge of the radio district in which the station is located and the Commission in Washington, D.C., are notified in writing upon the completion of such changes and provided further, that the changes are appropriately reflected in the next application for renewal of licenses of the station.

TECHNICAL OPERATION

§ 74.1061 Frequency tolerance.

The frequency of the unmodulated carrier of a community antenna relay station shall be maintained within 0.02 percent of the center of the assigned channel.

§ 74.1063 Frequency monitors and measurements.

(a) Suitable means shall be provided to insure that the operating frequency is within the prescribed tolerance at all times. The operating frequency shall be checked as often as is necessary to insure compliance with § 74.1061 and in any case at intervals of no more than one month.

(b) The choice of apparatus to measure the operating frequency is left to the discretion of the licensee. However, failure of the apparatus to detect departures of the operating frequency in excess of the prescribed tolerance will not be deemed an acceptable excuse for the violation.

§ 74.1065 Modulation limits.

(a) If amplitude modulation is employed, negative modulation peaks shall not exceed 100 percent modulation.

(b) Pending a final decision on Part IV of Docket No. 15586, no modulation limits are specified where frequency modulation is employed other than the requirements of § 74.637.

§ 74.1067 Time of operation.

(a) A community antenna relay station is not expected to adhere to any prescribed schedule of operation. However, it is limited to operation only when the originating station, or stations, is transmitting the programs which it relays except as provided in paragraph (b) of this section.

(b) The transmitter may be operated for short periods of time to permit necessary tests and adjustments. The radiation of an unmodulated carrier for extended periods of time or other unnecessary transmissions are forbidden.

§ 74.1069 Station inspection.

The station and all records required to be kept by the licensee shall be made available for inspection upon request by any authorized representative of the Commission.

§ 74.1071 Posting of station and operator licenses.

(a) The station license and any other instrument of authorization or individual order concerning the construction or the equipment or manner of operation shall be posted at the place where the transmitter is located, so that all terms thereof are visible except as otherwise provided in paragraphs (b) and (c) of this section.

(b) In cases where the transmitter is operated by remote control, the documents referred to in paragraph (a) of this section shall be posted in the manner described at the control point of the transmitter.

(c) In cases where the transmitter is operated unattended, the name of the licensee and the call sign of the unattended station shall be displayed at the transmitter site on the structure supporting the transmitting antenna, so as to be visible to a person standing on the ground at the transmitter site. The display shall be prepared so as to withstand normal weathering for a reasonable period of time and shall be maintained in a legible condition at all times by the licensee. The station license and other documents referred to in paragraph (a) of this section shall be kept at the nearest attended station or, in cases where the licensee of the unattended station does not operate attended stations, at the point of destination of the signals relayed by the unattended station.

(d) The original of each station operator license shall be posted at the place where the operator is on duty: Provided, however, That: if the original license of a station operator is posted at another radio transmitting station in accordance with the rules governing the class of station and is there available for inspection by a representative of the Commission, a verification card (FCC Form 758-F) is acceptable in lieu of the posting of such license: Provided further, however, That if the operator on duty holds an operator permit of the card form (as distinguished from the diploma form), he shall not post that permit but shall keep it in his personal possession.

§ 74.1073 Operator requirements.

(a) One or more radio operators holding valid radiotelephone first- or second-class operator licenses shall be on duty at the place where the transmitting apparatus of any community antenna relay station is located, in plain view of and in actual charge of its operation: Provided, however, That if a station is operated by remote control as provided in § 74.1035, such operator or operators must be on duty at the remote control position in lieu of the transmitting location, and the control and monitoring equipment shall be readily accessible and clearly visible to the operator at that position: And provided further, That if a station is operated unattended as provided in § 74.1037, such operator shall be on duty at the receiving end of the circuit and shall be responsible for making the required observations to insure that any condition of improper operation is promptly corrected.

(b) Any transmitter tests, adjustments, or repairs during or coincident with the installation, servicing, operation, or maintenance of a community antenna relay station which may affect the proper operation of such station shall be made by or under the immediate supervision and responsibility of a person holding a valid first- or second-class radiotelephone operator license, who shall be fully responsible for proper functioning of the station equipment.

(c) The licensed operator on duty and in charge of a community antenna relay station may, at the discretion of the licensee, be employed for other duties or for the operation of another station or stations in accordance with the class of operator license which he holds and the rules governing such stations. However, such duties shall in no way impair or impede the required supervision of the community antenna relay station.

§ 74.1075 Marking and lighting of antenna structures.

The marking and lighting of antenna structures authorized by the Commission, where required, will be specified in the authorization issued by the Commission. Part 17 of this chapter sets forth the circumstances under which such marking and lighting will be required and the responsibility of the licensee with regard thereto.

§ 74.1077 Additional orders.

In case the rules of this part do not cover all phases of operation with respect to external effects, the Commission may make supplemental or additional orders in each case as may be deemed necessary.

§ 74.1079 Copies of the rules.

The licensee of a community antenna relay station shall have current copies of Part 74, and in cases where aeronautical hazard marking of antennas is required, Part 17 of this chapter shall be available for use by the operator in charge. Both the licensee and the operator or operators responsible for the proper operation of the station are expected to be familiar with the rules governing community antenna relay stations. Copies of the Commission's rules may be obtained from the Superintendent of Documents, Government Printing Office, Washington, D.C., 20402, at nominal cost.

§ 74.1081 Logs.

The licensee of a community antenna relay station shall maintain an operating log showing the following:

(a) The date and time of the beginning and end of each period of operation of each transmitter.

(b) The date and time of any unscheduled interruptions to the transmissions of the station, the duration of such interruptions, and the causes thereof.

(c) A record of repairs, adjustments, tests, maintenance, and equipment changes.

(d) Log entries shall be made in an orderly and legible manner by the person or persons competent to do so, having actual knowledge of the facts required, who shall sign the log when starting duty and again when going off duty.

(e) Where an antenna structure is required to have aeronautical hazard markings, the information required by § 17.38 of this chapter shall be included.

(f) No log or portion thereof shall be erased, obliterated, or willfully destroyed.

within the period of retention required by rule. Any necessary correction may be made only by the person who made the original entry who shall strike out the erroneous portion, initial the correction made, and show the date the correction was made.

(g) Operating logs shall be retained for period of not less than 2 years. The Commission reserves the right to order retention of logs for a longer period of time. In cases where the licensee has notice of any claim or complaint, the log shall be retained until such claim or complaint has been fully satisfied or until the same has been barred by statute limiting the time for filing of suits upon such claims.

§ 74.1083 Retransmissions.

(a) Community antenna relay stations are limited to the relaying of television broadcast and related audio signals, and signals of standard and FM broadcast stations, unless otherwise authorized by the Commission. Relaying includes retransmission of such signals by intermediate relay stations in the system.

(b) Community antenna relay stations may also retransmit the signals of other community antenna relay or common carrier stations operated by different licensees provided that the program material retransmitted meets the requirements of subsection (a) of this section.

IV. Part 91 is amended as follows:

In § 91.552, paragraph (a) is amended and paragraph (e) is added to read:

§ 91.552 Availability and use of service.

(a) Except as provided in paragraph (e) of this section, the Business Radio Service is available to the extent indicated in the eligibility provisions of this subpart and is intended for use by those who are eligible without restriction as to the types of messages transmitted as long as they are necessary to the accomplishment of the business activity concerned: Provided, however, That all stations licensed in this service must accord first priority for the use of the frequency concerned to any station transmitting communications resulting from an actual emergency involving immediate danger to life or property.

* * * * *

(e) Commencing November 22, 1965, applications for authorizations to construct new microwave point-to-point radio stations for relaying television, standard, or FM broadcast signals to community antenna television (CATV) systems, will not be accepted for filing in the Business Radio Service. However, applications for licenses to cover existing construction permits, for renewals of licenses for existing facilities, for modifications of existing facilities (including extension of facilities), and for assignments of existing authorizations issued in the Business Radio Service will continue to be accepted. Such authorizations will not be granted for a term beyond February 1, 1971.

Title 49—TRANSPORTATION

Chapter I—Interstate Commerce Commission

SUBCHAPTER A—GENERAL RULES AND REGULATIONS

[3d Rev. S.O. 562]

PART 97—ROUTING OF TRAFFIC

Rerouting of Traffic; Appointment of Agents

At a session of the Interstate Commerce Commission, Division 3, held at its office in Washington, D.C., on the 15th day of October A.D. 1965.

It appearing, that the matter of car service (sec. 1, pars. 10-17 inclusive) of the Interstate Commerce Act being under consideration by Division 3 that whenever any carrier by railroad subject to Part I of the Interstate Commerce Act is, for any reason, unable to transport traffic offered it so as to properly serve the public that car service will be promoted in the interest of the public and the commerce of the people by the appointment of agents with authority to divert and reroute such traffic, and that notice and public procedure are impracticable and contrary to the public interest and that good cause exists for making this order effective upon less than thirty days' notice.

It is ordered, That:

§ 97.562 Service order 562.

(a) Rerouting of Traffic—Appointment of Agents. R. D. Pfahler, director, and H. R. Longhurst, assistant director, Bureau of Railroad Safety and Service, Interstate Commerce Commission, Washington, D.C., and each of them are hereby appointed agents of the Interstate Commerce Commission and vested with authority to authorize diversion and rerouting of loaded and empty freight cars from and to any point in the United States whenever, in their opinion, an emergency exists whereby any railroad is unable to move traffic currently over its lines.

(b) Application. The provisions of this order shall apply to shipments moving in intrastate commerce as well as to those moving in interstate commerce.

(c) Effective date. This order shall become effective at 12:01 a.m., October 15, 1965.

(d) Expiration date. This order shall expire at 11:59 p.m., December 31, 1965, unless otherwise modified, changed, suspended or annulled by order of this Commission.

(Secs. 1, 12, 15, 24 Stat. 379, 383, 384, as amended; 49 U.S.C. 1, 12, 15. Interprets or applies secs. 1(10-17), 15(4), 40 Stat. 101, as amended, 54 Stat. 911, 49 U.S.C. 1(10-17), 15(4))

It is further ordered, That a copy of this order and direction shall be served upon each State railroad regulatory body, the Association of American Railroads, Car Service Division, and upon The American Short Line Railroad Association as agents of the railroads subscribing to the car service and per diem agreement under the terms of that agreement, and that notice of this order be given to the general public by depositing a copy in the office of the Secretary of the Commission at Washington, D.C., and by filing it with the Director, Office of the Federal Register.

By the Commission, Division 3.

PART 120—ANNUAL, SPECIAL OR PERIODICAL REPORTS

Railroad Annual Report Form A

At a session of the Interstate Commerce Commission, Division 2, held at its office in Washington, D.C., on the 29th day of September A.D. 1965.

The matter of annual reports of line-haul and switching and terminal railroad companies of Class I being under further consideration, and the changes to be made by this order being minor changes in the data to be furnished, rule-making procedures under section 4 of the Administrative Procedure Act, 5 U.S.C. 1003, being deemed unnecessary: It is ordered, That § 120.11 of the order of February 2, 1965 (30 F.R. 1983) in the matter of Railroad Annual Report Form A, be, and it is hereby, modified and amended, with respect to annual reports for the year ended December 31, 1965, and subsequent years, to read as shown below.

It is further ordered, That 49 CFR 120.11, be, and it is hereby, modified and amended to read as follows:

§ 120.11 Form prescribed for Class I railroads.

Commencing with reports for the year ended December 31, 1965, and thereafter, until further order, all line-haul and switching and terminal railroad companies of Class I, as described in § 126.1, viz. of this chapter, all carriers with average annual operating revenues of $5,000,000 or more, subject to the provisions of section 20, Part I of the Interstate Commerce Act, are required to file annual reports in accordance with Railroad Annual Report Form A, which is attached to and made a part of this section.¹ Such annual report shall be filed in duplicate in the Bureau of Accounts, Interstate Commerce Commission, Washington, D.C., 20423, on or before March 31 of the year following the year to which it relates.

(Sec. 12, 24 Stat. 383, as amended; 49 U.S.C. 12. Interpret or apply sec. 20, 24 Stat. 386, as amended; 49 U.S.C. 20)

And it is further ordered, That copies of this order and of Annual Report Form A shall be served on all line-haul and switching and terminal railroad companies of Class I, subject to the provisions of section 20, Part I of the Interstate Commerce Act, and upon every receiver, trustee, executor, administrator or assignee of any such railroad company, and that notice of this order shall be given to the general public by depositing a copy in the office of the Secretary of the Commission at Washington, D.C., 20423, and by filing it with the Director, Office of the Federal Register.

¹ Report Form A will be served and filed when printed.

By the Commission, Division 2.

PART 32—HUNTING

National Wildlife Refuges, Fla. and Certain Other States

The following special regulations are issued and are effective on date of publication in the FEDERAL REGISTER. The limited time ensuing from the date of the adoption of the national migratory game bird regulations to and including the establishment of State hunting seasons makes it impracticable to give public notice of proposed rulemaking.

§ 32.12 Special regulations; migratory game birds; for individual wildlife refuge areas.

FLORIDA

MERRITT ISLAND NATIONAL WILDLIFE REFUGE

Public hunting of ducks and coots on the Merritt Island National Wildlife Refuge, Fla., is permitted only on the area designated by signs as open to hunting. This open area, comprising 4,000 acres, is delineated on a map available at the refuge headquarters, Titusville, Fla., and from the office of the Regional Director, Bureau of Sport Fisheries and Wildlife, 809 Peachtree-Seventh Building, Atlanta, Ga., 30323. Hunting shall be in accordance with all applicable State and Federal regulations covering the hunting of ducks and coots subject to the following special conditions:

(1) Hunting will be permitted only from sunrise until noon 5 days per week, Tuesday through Saturday, during the periods November 25 through December 4, 1965, and December 18, 1965 through January 8, 1966.

(2) Hunters will be permitted to hunt only from designated blinds furnished and located by the Bureau. Shooting is not permitted outside a blind.

(3) Guns must be unloaded while being transported on the refuge and while being carried to and from the blinds. Guns must be left in the blind while dead or crippled birds are being retrieved.

(4) A maximum of three persons will be permitted to shoot from one blind.

(5) Participants in the hunt are required to furnish either a retriever or some means of flotation for retrieving birds which fall across or in deep water.

(6) The use of air-thrust boats on the refuge is prohibited.

(7) Hunters under 16 years of age may not apply for advance reservations but may participate in the hunt if accompanied by an adult.

(8) Shells that contain shot larger than BB's are prohibited.

(9) Hunters are required to enter and leave the hunting area by way of the check station located at the Titusville security gate. All waterfowl bagged must be presented for inspection at the check station before hunters leave the refuge.

(10) A refuge permit is required of all hunters. A blind fee of $3 per blind per day is required. (One dollar per person if three persons occupy a blind.)

(11) Applications for advance reservations for refuge permits must be submitted in writing prior to October 25 to the Refuge Manager, Merritt Island National Wildlife Refuge, Post Office Box 956, Titusville, Fla. Vacancies not reserved by advance reservation will be awarded daily at the check station on a first come, first served basis. Reservation commitments for a refuge permit are not transferable and, unless claimed prior to one hour before shooting time, are automatically cancelled.

The provisions of this special regulation supplement the regulations which govern hunting on wildlife refuge areas generally which are set forth in Title 50, Code of Federal Regulations, Part 32, and are effective through January 9, 1965.

CHASSAHOWITZKA NATIONAL WILDLIFE REFUGE

Public hunting of ducks and coots on the Chassahowitzka National Wildlife Refuge, Fla., is permitted only on the area designated by signs as open to hunting. This open area, comprising 2,500 acres, is delineated on a map available at the refuge headquarters and from the Regional Director, Bureau of Sport Fisheries and Wildlife, 809 Peachtree-Seventh Building, Atlanta, Ga., 30323. Hunting shall be in accordance with all applicable State and Federal regulations governing the hunting of ducks and coots subject to the following special conditions:

(1) Hunting will be permitted only on Wednesdays through Sundays during the periods November 24 through December 5, 1965, and December 18, 1965, through January 9, 1966.

(2) Not to exceed two dogs per hunter may be used only to retrieve wounded or dead birds.

(3) Only temporary blinds constructed of native vegetation are permitted.

(4) Designated routes of travel must be used for entering or leaving the public hunting area.

(5) A Federal permit is required for the use of airboats in the refuge area. Airboat permits may be obtained by applying in person at refuge headquarters, 4½ miles south of Homosassa Springs, Fla., between the hours of 7:30 a.m., and 4:00 p.m., Monday through Friday. All airboats must be equipped with exhaust muffling devices.

(6) All guns must be unloaded and cased while hunters are traveling to and from the hunting area.

The provisions of this special regulation supplement the regulations which govern hunting on wildlife refuge areas generally which are set forth in Title 50, Code of Federal Regulations, Part 32 and are effective through January 9, 1966.

LOXAHATCHEE NATIONAL WILDLIFE REFUGE

Public hunting of ducks and coots on the Loxahatchee National Wildlife Refuge, Fla., is permitted only on the area designated by signs as open to hunting. This open area, comprising 29,000 acres, is delineated on a map available at the refuge headquarters, Delray Beach, Fla., and from the office of the Regional Director, Bureau of Sport Fisheries and Wildlife, 809 Peachtree-Seventh Building, Atlanta, Ga., 30323. Hunting shall be in accordance with all applicable State and Federal regulations covering the hunting of ducks and coots subject to the following special conditions:

(1) The possession or use of shells containing shot larger than No. 4 is prohibited.

(2) Only temporary blinds constructed of native vegetation are permitted.

(3) Hunters must enter and leave the refuge by either the S-39 landing or the headquarters landing and must use the following designated routes of travel to and from the hunting area: those portions of Canal 40 and Canal 39 (Hillsboro Canal) immediately east and south of the hunting area; also the refuge marsh areas near the headquarters landing and the S-39 landing lying between the hunting area and portions of lands described above. No hunting is permitted in or over these designated routes of travel.

(4) While using designated routes of travel to and from the hunting area, hunters must have their shotguns unloaded and cased.

(5) Air-thrust boats may be authorized for use only by special permit issued by the refuge manager.

(6) All public use within the refuge is limited to the period each day from 1 hour before sunrise to 1 hour after sunset.

(7) Each hunter will be permitted to use dogs for the purpose of retrieving dead or wounded birds, but such dogs shall not be permitted to run at large on the public shooting grounds or elsewhere on the refuge.

The provisions of this special regulation supplement the regulations which govern hunting on wildlife refuge areas generally which are set forth in Title 50, Code of Federal Regulations, Part 32, and are effective through January 9, 1966.

ALABAMA

WHEELER NATIONAL WILDLIFE REFUGE

Public hunting of geese, ducks, and coots on the Wheeler National Wildlife Refuge, Ala., is permitted only on the area designated by signs as open to hunting. This open area, comprising 4,150 acres, is delineated on a map available at the refuge headquarters, Decatur, Ala., and from the office of the Regional Director, Bureau of Sport Fisheries and Wildlife, 809 Peachtree-Seventh Building, Atlanta, Ga., 30323. Hunting shall be in accordance with all applicable State and Federal regulations covering the hunting of geese, ducks, and coots subject to the following special conditions:

(1) Open season—Geese November 6, 1965, through January 1, 1966. Ducks and coots December 1, 1965, through January 1, 1966. A kill quota of 2,000 geese is established. If this quota is reached during the above open season, the refuge hunt for all waterfowl species will be terminated. During the above seasons, hunting will be permitted only on Mondays, Tuesdays, Wednesdays, Fridays and Saturdays, sunrise to 12 noon. All holidays, except Christmas Day, December 25, 1965, falling on above days in the above period will be hunted.

(2) Blinds—The construction of blinds by the public is prohibited. Hunting shall be only from those blinds constructed and labeled by the Bureau.

(3) Guns must be unloaded while being transported on the refuge and while being carried to and from blinds. Guns must be left in blinds while dead or crippled birds are being retrieved.

RULES AND REGULATIONS

(4) Ammunition—Shells that contain shot larger than No. 2 may not be used and will not be permitted in the possession of hunters.

(5) No hunter may carry in any manner or have in possession or under control at any time more than 15 loaded shotgun shells; or discharge or fire more than 15 loaded shotgun shells while hunting on the refuge on any one day.

(6) Crows and foxes may also be shot during the hunt period, provided these are shot from designated waterfowl blinds.

(7) Intoxicating beverages shall not be permitted on the refuge.

(8) Hunters shall not be permitted to enter the hunting area sooner than 1½ hours before sunrise.

(9) A maximum of two persons will be permitted to hunt from each blind.

(10) Hunters under 16 years of age must be accompanied by an adult.

(11) Each hunter must have a refuge permit. To obtain a permit individuals must present a valid Alabama hunting license, a duck stamp (if persons have attained 16th birthday) and pay a blind fee of $4.00, ($2.00 per person if 2 persons occupy blind.)

(12) Hunters are required to stop at the permit office at the close of each hunt, return permits and allow game to be examined.

(13) Applications for advance reservations for refuge permits must be submitted in writing to the refuge manager. Applications for advance reservations will be accepted during the period September 15–25. Only one application will be accepted per individual, and this for a maximum of two hunting dates. Blinds not reserved and those for which reservations are not claimed within 1 hour of official sunrise will be awarded on the basis of a drawing held at the permit office each hunt morning approximately 1 hour before sunrise. Reservation commitments for a refuge permit are nontransferable.

The provisions of this special regulation supplement the regulations which govern hunting on wildlife refuge areas generally which are set forth in Title 50, Code of Federal Regulations, Part 32, and are effective through January 1, 1966.

NORTH CAROLINA

MATTAMUSKEET NATIONAL WILDLIFE REFUGE

Public hunting of ducks, geese, and coots on the Mattamuskeet National Wildlife Refuge, N.C., is permitted only on the area designated by signs as open to hunting. This open area, comprising 11,300 acres, is delineated on a map available at the refuge headquarters, New Holland, N.C., and from the office of the Regional Director, Bureau of Sport Fisheries and Wildlife, 809 Peachtree-Seventh Building, Atlanta, Ga., 30323. Hunting shall be in accordance with all applicable State and Federal regulations covering the hunting of ducks, geese, and coots.

The provisions of this special regulation supplement the regulations which govern hunting on wildlife refuge areas generally which are set forth in Title 50, Code of Federal Regulations, Part 32, and are effective through January 14, 1966.

GEORGIA

SAVANNAH NATIONAL WILDLIFE REFUGE

Public hunting of ducks and coots on the Savannah National Wildlife Refuge, Ga., is permitted only on the area designated by signs as open to hunting. This open area, comprising 3,600 acres, is delineated on a map available at the refuge headquarters, Route 1, Hardeeville, S.C., 29927, and from the office of the Regional Director, Bureau of Sport Fisheries and Wildlife, 809 Peachtree-Seventh Building, Atlanta, Ga., 30323. Hunting shall be in accordance with all applicable State and Federal regulations covering the hunting of ducks and coots subject to the following special conditions:

(1) Hunting will be permitted only on Wednesdays, Thursdays, Fridays and Saturdays, from sunrise to 1 p.m., during the period December 1, 1965, through January 8, 1966.

(2) Hunting will not be permitted in or on Front River, Middle River, Steamboat River, and Back River, nor closer than 50 yards to the shoreline of these rivers.

(3) Hunters will not be permitted to enter the hunting area sooner than 1½ hours before sunrise.

(4) Guns must be unloaded while being carried to and from the hunting area.

(5) Only temporary blinds constructed of native materials are permitted.

(6) Dogs used to retrieve waterfowl must be under complete control at all times.

(7) Before entering the hunting area, hunters are required to obtain a permit at the refuge check station, located on U.S. Highway 17 at the Middle River Bridge. All hunters must check out at the check station as soon as possible after completing their hunt and must present all bagged game for inspection.

The provisions of this special regulation supplement the regulations which govern hunting on wildlife refuge areas generally which are set forth in Title 50, Code of Federal Regulations, Part 32, and are effective through January 8, 1966.

MISSISSIPPI

Proposed Rule Making

FEDERAL AVIATION AGENCY

[14 CFR Part 103]

[Docket No. 6973; Notice No. 65-29]

QUANTITY LIMITATIONS AND CARGO LOCATIONS

Notice of Proposed Rule Making

The Federal Aviation Agency has under consideration an amendment to Part 103 to exclude small-arms ammunition from the 50-pound weight limitation of § 103.7(b) when being transported in passenger carrying aircraft. It is also proposed to make the quantity limitations of paragraphs (a) and (c) of § 103.19 applicable only to inaccessible cargo pits or bins on any aircraft. It is further proposed to amend § 103.31(c) to clearly indicate that the prohibition against carrying yellow labeled material and white labeled material side by side applies anywhere within any aircraft.

Interested persons are invited to participate in the making of the proposed rules by submitting such written data, views, or arguments as they may desire. Communications should identify the regulatory docket or notice number and be submitted in duplicate to the Federal Aviation Agency, Office of the General Counsel, Attention: Rules Docket, 800 Independence Avenue SW., Washington, D.C., 20553. All communications received on or before December 20, 1965, will be considered by the Administrator before taking action upon the proposed rules. The proposals contained in this notice may be changed in light of comments received. All comments submitted will be available, both before and after the closing date for comments, in the Rules Docket for examination by interested persons.

A proposal to relax the quantity and storage limitations was requested by the Air Transport Association (ATA) on behalf of its member airlines. In support of its request the ATA states, among other things, that experience has shown that the present requirements are unnecessary from the standpoint of safety and impractical from the standpoint of handling. The ATA requested the elimination of the 50-pound weight limitation of § 103.7(b) upon the quantity of Class C explosives that may be packed in one outside container if aboard a passenger-carrying aircraft. However, the Bureau of Explosives recommends relaxation of the 50-pound limitation only in the case of small-arms ammunition, since small-arms ammunition is the only exception among Class C explosives that does not readily ignite en masse by the ignition of one unit of the same Class C explosive within the container. The Agency agrees with the Bureau of Explosives. Accordingly, the amendment of § 103.7(b) as proposed herein only excludes small-arms ammunition from the 50-pound limitation for an outside container.

It is therefore proposed to amend § 103.7(b) to except small-arms ammunition from the 50-pound limitation contained in that section.

The ATA also requested the elimination of paragraphs (a) and (c) of § 103.19 which contain a total weight limitation for each dangerous article stowed in any cargo bin on passenger-carrying aircraft and in any inaccessible cargo bin on all aircraft.

Generally the containers used in transporting dangerous articles are constructed to withstand conditions normally incident to transportation, without rupturing. However, because the possibility of ruptured containers does exist, the Agency does not believe that the present weight limitations imposed for inaccessible cargo bins on all aircraft (cargo and passenger) can safely be removed. In the case of an accessible cargo bin, a ruptured container can be separated in flight from the remainder of the cargo, thus preventing the further development of an unsafe flight condition. Therefore, no unacceptable risk would be imposed if, as proposed herein, the present weight limit for dangerous articles stowed in each accessible cargo bin, on all aircraft, were removed.

The ATA has further requested the deletion of § 103.31(b). This section requires dangerous articles that are acceptable only for carriage on cargo aircraft to be stowed in a location accessible to a crewmember in flight. Those articles present such a potential hazard that in the event of rupture, their inaccessibility in flight could result in serious consequences. Therefore, the Agency believes that the provisions of § 103.31(b) must be retained in the interest of safety.

Lastly, the ATA requested the elimination of § 103.31(c). This section prohibits the stowage of white labeled material and yellow labeled material side by side in cabins or in cargo bins. In support of its request, ATA states that this section was created to prevent the possibility of a fire as a result of one container leaking into another as might occur when white labeled material is placed on top of yellow labeled material; they further state that such a possibility is so remote as to be nearly impossible. Although this contention may be valid, it should be noted that the failure of containers of these materials could result not only in fire, but also in the formation of toxic gas and corrosive acid within the aircraft. Because of the possibility of any of these unsafe conditions occurring during flight, the Agency does not believe that the safeguards provided by that section should be removed from Part 105.

In connection with the consideration of § 103.31(c) it has been brought to the attention of the Agency that the provisions of that section have, in some instances, been misinterpreted. The prohibition against the stowage of yellow and white label material side by side "in cabins or in cargo pits or bins" was interpreted by some persons to mean yellow label material and white labeled material could not be stowed in the same cargo pit or bin regardless of their position in the cargo pit or bin. This restrictive interpretation is incorrect. Section 103.31(c) of the FARs, as well as § 73.538 of the ICC regulations, the basis for § 103.31(c), permits the stowage of white and yellow labeled materials in the same compartment provided they are not stowed next to each other. Accordingly, the Agency proposes to amend § 103.31(c) to avoid any further misinterpretation of that section by simply stating that the prohibition contained therein applies to white and yellow labeled material stowed next to each other anywhere within the aircraft.

In consideration of the foregoing, it is proposed to amend Part 103 of Chapter I of Title 14 of the Code of Federal Aviation Regulations as follows:

1. By amending § 103.7(b) to read as follows:

§ 103.7 Passenger-carrying aircraft.

(b) Class C explosives that are packed, marked, and labeled in accordance with the requirements of Parts 72 and 73 of the ICC Regulations (49 CFR Parts 72 and 73) for shipment by rail express, except that the maximum for other than small-arms ammunition that may be packed in one outside container is 50 pounds net weight.

2. By amending paragraphs (a) and (c) of § 103.19 to read as follows:

§ 103.19 Quantity limitations.

(a) No person may carry more than 150 pounds net weight of nonflammable compressed gas in any inaccessible cargo pit or bin on any aircraft.

(c) No person may carry more than 50 pounds net weight of any article (other than an article specified in paragraph (a) and (b) of this section) that is subject to this Part in any inaccessible cargo pit or bin on any aircraft.

3. By amending § 103.31(c) to read as follows:

§ 103.31 Cargo location.

(c) No person may place a container of yellow label material next to, or in a position to allow contact with, a container of white labeled material in any aircraft.

These amendments are proposed under the authority of Sections 307, 313 (a), 601 and 902 of the Federal Aviation Act of 1958; 49 U.S.C. 1348, 1354, 1421 and 1472.

Issued in Washington, D.C., on October 14, 1965.

G. S. MOORE,
Director,
Flight Standards Service.

The Commission, by its Chief, Safety and Special Radio Services Bureau, having under consideration a request submitted on October 14, 1965, by the Academy of Model Aeronautics (Academy) to extend the period for filing reply comments in the above-entitled matter until November 15, 1965; and

It appearing, that, the time for filing original comments expired on October 1, 1965, and the time for filing reply comments expires on October 15, 1965; and

It further appearing, that, the Academy filed the petition, RM-496, which is being considered in this proceeding and states in support of its request that an additional 30-day period is needed in order to evaluate the comments filed in response to the Commission's notice and to coordinate its reply comments with the members of its Radio Control Committee; and

It further appearing, that, the public interest would be served by providing the additional time for the filing of reply comments;

It is ordered, This 15th day of October 1965, pursuant to sections 4(i) and 5(d) (1) of the Communications Act of 1934, as amended and § 0.331(b)(4) of the Commission's rules, that the time for filing reply comments in this proceeding is extended from October 15, 1965, to November 15, 1965.

Released: October 18, 1965.

FM TABLE OF ASSIGNMENTS; OSKALOOSA, IOWA, ET AL.

Order Extending Time for Filing Comments and Replies

In the matter of amendment of § 73.202, Table of Assignments, FM Broadcast Stations (Oskaloosa, Ottumwa, Perry, Marshalltown, Knoxville, Carroll, Waterloo, Oelwein, and Charles City, Iowa).

1. On September 10, 1965 the Commission issued a notice of proposed rule making (FCC 65-788) in the above-entitled matter inviting comments on two conflicting petitions for rule making to amend the FM Table of Assignments. The time for filing comments was designated as October 11, 1965, and for reply comments as October 26, 1965. Upon joint request of Palmer Broadcasting Co. and Black Hawk Broadcasting, the two original petitioners, these dates were extended until October 18, 1965, and November 2, 1965, in order that they may have time to set forth a solution to the conflict. On October 15, 1965, Palmer and Black Hawk filed another request for an extension until October 25, 1965, since additional time is necessary to submit their comments and the possible solution.

2. We are of the view that the requested extension would serve the public interest. However, in order that the parties may have sufficient time in which to prepare their comments we believe that more than 1 week should be allowed. Accordingly, notice is hereby given that the time for filing comments in this proceeding is extended to November 1, 1965, and for reply comments to November 15, 1965.

3. This action is taken pursuant to authority contained in sections 4(i), 5(d) (1) and 303(r) of the Communications Act of 1934, as amended, and § 0.281(d) (8) of the Commission's rules.

Adopted: October 18, 1965.

Released: October 18, 1965.

VHF BROADCAST STATIONS; REMOTE CONTROL OPERATION

Order Extending Time for Filing Comments and Reply Comments

1. On September 24, 1965, the Commission issued a notice of proposed rule making (FCC 65-856) inviting comments in the above-entitled matter by October 22, 1965, and reply comments by November 5, 1965. Two requests for extension of time to file comments in this proceeding have been filed, one by the Broadcast Equipment Section of the Electronic Industries Association (EIA) and the second by the National Association of Broadcast Employees and Technicians, AFL-CIO (NABET), the former requesting an extension for comments until January 17, 1966, and the latter until November 22, 1965. EIA states that its Engineering Committee needs additional time in order to evaluate the proposal and to submit recommendations to the Broadcast Equipment Section and that in addition both the Broadcast Television System Committee and the receiver manufacturers wish to consider whether to submit comments. EIA further states that it will take considerable time to prepare remote control equipment. NABET states that it desires additional time in order to conduct a survey of a representative number of VHF stations to determine the possible impact of the proposal on employment of technicians by VHF stations and the maintenance of the Commission's technical standards, and that the completion of such a study would make possible more meaningful comments.

2. We are of the view that the petitioners have made a sufficient showing to warrant the additional time requested and that an extension would serve the public interest. Accordingly, it is ordered, This 14th day of October 1965, That the time for filing comments in this proceeding is extended from October 22, 1965, to January 17, 1966, and for filing reply comments from November 5, 1965, to February 1, 1966.

3. This action is taken pursuant to authority found in sections 4(i), 5(d) (1) and 303(r) of the Communications Act of 1934, as amended, and § 0.281(d) (8) of the Commission's rules.

Released: October 18, 1965.

MOTOR CARRIER, BROKER, WATER CARRIER, AND FREIGHT FOR- WARDER APPLICATIONS

OCTOBER 15, 1965.

The following applications are governed by Special Rule 1.247¹ of the Commission's general rules of practice (49 CFR 1.247), published in the FEDERAL REGISTER, issue of December 3, 1963, effective January 1, 1964. These rules provide, among other things, that a protest to the granting of an application must be filed with the Commission within 30 days after date of notice of filing of the application is published in the FEDERAL REGISTER. Failure seasonably to file a protest will be construed as a waiver of opposition and participation in the proceeding. A protest under these rules should comply with § 1.40 of the general rules of practice which requires that it set forth specifically the grounds upon which it is made and specify with particularity the facts, matters, and things relied upon, but shall not include issues or allegations phrased generally. Protests not in reasonable compliance with the requirements of the rules may be rejected. The original and six (6) copies of the protest shall be filed with the Commission, and a copy shall be served concurrently upon applicant's representative, or applicant if no representative is named. If the protest includes a request for oral hearing, such request shall meet the requirements of § 1.247(d)(4) of the Special Rule. Subsequent assignment of these proceedings for oral hearing, if any, will be by Commission order which will be served on each party of record.

The publications hereinafter set forth reflect the scope of the applications as filed by applicants, and may include descriptions, restrictions, or limitations which are not in a form acceptable to the Commission. Authority which ultimately may be granted as a result of the applications here noticed will not necessarily reflect the phraseology set forth in the application as filed, but also will eliminate any restrictions which are not acceptable to the Commission.

ALASKA

Notice of Termination of Proposed Withdrawal and Reservation of Lands

OCTOBER 13, 1965.

Notice of an application, Serial No. Fairbanks 034596, for withdrawal and reservation of lands was published as Federal Register Document No. 65-6136 on page 7674 of the issue for Saturday, June 12, 1965. The applicant agency has canceled its application insofar as it involved the lands described below. Therefore, pursuant to the regulations contained in 43 CFR Part 2311, such lands will be at 10 a.m. on the date of publication of this notice relieved of the segregative effect of the above mentioned withdrawal application.

The lands involved in this notice of termination are:

CLEARWATER LAKE, ALASKA

A tract of land situated on the south bank of the Tanana River, approximately 5.8 miles Northeast of Delta Junction, Alaska, in the Fourth State Judicial District, and more specifically described in aliquot parts as follows: T. 9 S., R. 11 E., F.M.

Sec. 33, $W\frac{1}{2}NE\frac{1}{4}NE\frac{1}{4}NE\frac{1}{4}$, $NW\frac{1}{4}NE\frac{1}{4}NE\frac{1}{4}$, $N\frac{1}{2}NW\frac{1}{4}NE\frac{1}{4}$, $NE\frac{1}{4}NE\frac{1}{4}NW\frac{1}{4}$, $E\frac{1}{2}NW\frac{1}{4}NE\frac{1}{4}NW\frac{1}{4}$.

Sec. 28, $W\frac{1}{2}E\frac{1}{2}E\frac{1}{2}SE\frac{1}{4}$ southwest of Tanana River, $W\frac{1}{2}E\frac{1}{2}SE\frac{1}{4}$ southwest of Tanana River, $W\frac{1}{2}SE\frac{1}{4}$ southwest of Tanana River, $E\frac{1}{2}E\frac{1}{2}SW\frac{1}{4}$ southwest of Tanana River, $E\frac{1}{2}W\frac{1}{2}E\frac{1}{2}SW\frac{1}{4}$, $SE\frac{1}{4}SE\frac{1}{4}NW\frac{1}{4}$ southwest of Tanana River, $E\frac{1}{2}SW\frac{1}{4}SE\frac{1}{4}NW\frac{1}{4}$ southwest of Tanana River, $SE\frac{1}{4}NW\frac{1}{4}SE\frac{1}{4}NW\frac{1}{4}$ southwest of Tanana River.

The area described aggregates approximately 240 acres.

IDAHO

Order Providing for Opening of Public Lands

OCTOBER 15, 1965.

1. In exchange of lands made under the provisions of section 8 of the Act of June 28, 1964 (48 Stat. 1272; 43 U.S.C. 315g) as amended, the following described lands have been conveyed to the United States:

BOISE MERIDIAN, IDAHO

PARCEL 1

T. 20 N., R. 23 E.,
Sec. 21, $SW\frac{1}{4}NW\frac{1}{4}$.

PARCEL 2

T. 19 N., R. 24 E.,
Sec. 22, lot 2.

PARCEL 3

T. 8 N., R. 28 E.,
Sec. 26, $SW\frac{1}{4}$.

PARCEL 4

T. 11 N., R. 29 E.,
Sec. 5, $SE\frac{1}{4}NE\frac{1}{4}$, $SW\frac{1}{4}NW\frac{1}{4}$, $W\frac{1}{2}SE\frac{1}{4}$ and $SE\frac{1}{4}SE\frac{1}{4}$.

T. 12 N., R. 29 E.,
Sec. 30, $SE\frac{1}{4}SW\frac{1}{4}$.

PARCEL 5

T. 1 S., R. 18 E.,
Sec. 5, lot 3 and $E\frac{1}{2}SW\frac{1}{4}$.

PARCEL 6

T. 14 S., R. 35 E.,
Sec. 29, $SW\frac{1}{4}NW\frac{1}{4}$.

The areas described aggregate 617.22 acres.

2. Parcel 1 is located in Lemhi County approximately 3 air miles south of Baker. The topography ranges from gently sloping to steep and mountainous. Soils are deep sandy loam. Plant cover consists of sagebrush and grass. No potential for agriculture. Cheney Creek in the northwest corner provides live-stock water.

3. Parcel 2 is located in Lemhi County about 2.5 miles northeast of Tendoy. Topography ranges from gently undulating to steep. Plant cover consists of sagebrush and associated grasses. No potential for agriculture.

4. Parcel 3 is located in Butte County in the Little Lost River drainage about 18 miles northwest of Howe. The shallow sandy silt loam soil is cut by many drainages. Topography is undulating. Plant cover is a sagebrush-grass type. Utah Power and Light Company has a pole line easement across the land.

5. Parcel 4 is located in Lemhi County near the headwaters of Birch Creek about 32 miles south of Leadore. The land is typical of high mountain valley land in this part of Idaho. The alluvial formation soil supports a plant cover of sagebrush, rabbitbrush and bunch-grasses. U.S. Highway 28 crosses most of the land. No potential for agriculture.

6. Parcel 5 is located in Blaine County about 8 miles southwesterly from Bellevue in the Rock Creek drainage. Topography is undulating. The shallow, gravelly loam soil supports a plant cover of sagebrush and grasses. No agriculture potential.

7. Parcel 6 is located in Oneida County 8 miles west of Malad City. Topography is steep to rolling. The fine silt loam soil comingled with gravel and boulders supports a plant cover of various shrubs, mountain maple and a variety of grasses. No potential for agriculture.

8. Pursuant to the authority delegated to me by Bureau Order No. 701, § 2.5, dated July 23, 1964, of the Associate Director, the lands described in paragraph 1 hereof shall become subject to application, petition and selection generally, but excepting applications under the Small Tract Act, subject to valid existing rights, the provisions of existing withdrawals and the requirements of applicable law, effective 10 a.m. on November 18, 1965. All valid applications received at or prior to this time and date will be considered as simultaneously filed.

9. The lands described in paragraph 1 hereof shall be open to mineral leasing and to location under the United States mining laws at 10 a.m. on November 18, 1965. Any offers received at or prior to this time and date will be considered as simultaneously filed.

10. Inquiries should be addressed to the Manager, Land Office, Bureau of Land Management, P.O. Box 2237, Boise, Idaho, 83701.

EUGENE E. BABIN,

Acting Manager, Land Office.

UTAH 094776

T. 25 S., R. 11 W.,
Sec. 12, All;
Sec. 14, All;
Sec. 29, All;
Sec. 33, All.

The above listed tracts aggregate 7,730.61 acres more or less.

2. The conveyances to the United States included the mineral estate as well as the surface in the following-described lands:

SALT LAKE BASE AND MERIDIAN, UTAH

T. 11 N., R. 18 W.,
Sec. 13, All;
Sec. 23, E½W½.

T. 11 N., R. 17 W.,
Sec. 1, All.
T. 12 N., R. 17 W.,
Sec. 31, Lots 6, 7, N½SE¼.
T. 6 S., R. 6 W.,
Sec. 14, SE¼SW¼;
Sec. 23, NW¼.

3. The lands in T. 25 S., R. 19 E., are located in Bartlett Flat about 10 miles west of U.S. Highway 160 and 20 miles northwest of Moab, Utah. Topography ranges from a nearly vertical rim with no soil to flat rolling land with moderately deep sandy soils. The vegetative cover is sagebrush associated with Indian rice grass, bitter brush and miscellaneous weeds, grasses and shrubs. These lands have a fair value for grazing livestock but are not suited for agriculture or intensive uses.

4. The land in T. 9 N., R. 5 E., is located about 9 miles west of Woodruff, Utah. Topography is of the foothill type with moderately steep drainages and ridges. This land has been used in the past for grazing livestock and as winter range for deer but it has no potential for reseeding or other improvements. It is suited for grazing.

5. The lands in T. 10 N., R. 14 W., and T. 11 N., R. 13 and 14 W., are located some 13 miles south of Park Valley, Utah. They consist of rolling hills and some plateau areas. The soil is a deep clay loam, supporting a mixture of desert shrubs with a scanty understory of native grasses. Principal use is for grazing of domestic livestock with little potential for improvement of carrying capacity other than through management.

6. The lands in T. 11 N., R. 18 W., are located about 2 miles southeast of Grouse Creek, Utah. They are moderately rolling in topography with shallow rocky soils. Vegetative cover consists of sagebrush associated with cheat grass and some other native grasses and weeds. Past, present, and highest foreseeable future use is for grazing livestock. The grazing capacity might be improved by reseeding perennial grasses.

7. The lands in Tps. 11 and 12 N., R. 17 W., are located about 8 miles east of Grouse Creek, Utah, in the Grouse Creek Mountains. The topography is moderately steep with shallow rocky soils. Vegetative cover is of the mountain browse type, including oak brush, grasses, and weeds. The principal use of these lands is for grazing livestock.

8. The lands in T. 6 S., R. 6 W., are located about 5 miles southwest of Clover, Utah, in Rush Valley. The topography is gently undulating and the soils are a deep sandy loam. Vegetative cover is of the sagebrush type, associated with cheat grass and annual weeds. The principal present and future use is for grazing livestock. The carrying capacity might be improved by seeding perennial grasses.

9. The lands in T. 9 S., R. 9 W., are located about 12 miles southeast of Dugway and 25 miles west of Vernon, Utah. The topography is nearly level and the soils deep, very alkaline clay loam, not capable of sustained cultivation. Vegetative cover is of the saltbrush type with a very sparse understory of cheat grass and annual weeds. Its use is for grazing, now and in the foreseeable future.

10. The lands in T. 25 S., R. 11 W., are located near Black Rock, about 15 miles north of Milford, Utah. The topography is gently undulating. Vegetative cover includes shadscale, associated with winter fat and black sage, suited for winter sheep grazing which is the principal anticipated use in the foreseeable future.

11. No application for these restored lands will be allowed under any of the nonmineral public land laws, unless the lands have already been classified as valuable or suitable for such application, or shall be so classified upon consideration of a petition-application. Any petition-application that is filed will be considered on its merits.

12. Pursuant to the authority delegated to me by Order No. 701, § 1.5(c), of the Director of the Bureau of Land Management, dated July 23, 1964, the lands described in paragraph 1, subject to valid existing rights, and the requirements of applicable law, are hereby opened to the filing of petition-application, selection, and location generally, but excepting applications under the Small Tract Act, subject to valid existing rights, the provisions of existing withdrawals and the requirements of applicable law, effective 10 a.m., November 8, 1965. All valid applications received at or prior to that time will be considered as simultaneously filed at that time.

13. The lands listed in paragraph 2 will be open to location under the United States mining laws, beginning at 10 a.m., on November 8, 1965.

14. Inquiries should be addressed to the Manager, Land Office, Bureau of Land Management, 125 South State Street, Salt Lake City, Utah, 84111.

UTAH

Order Providing for the Opening of Public Lands

OCTOBER 7, 1965.

1. By Public Land Order No. 1819, dated March 19, 1959, Executive Order No. 8652 of January 28, 1941, which reserved lands for use of the War Department as an aerial bombing and gunnery range, was revoked as to the following-described lands:

SALT LAKE MERIDIAN, UTAH

T. 1 N., R. 14½ W.,
Partially surveyed, entire township.

The area described aggregates 2,330 acres, more or less.

2. These lands are located 29 miles east of Wendover, Utah, and 3 to 9 miles north of U.S. Highway 40, on mud-salt flats of Great Salt Lake. They have no vegetative cover and no known utility value except for possible recovery of salt. They are not suited for farming or grazing.

3. No application for these restored lands will be allowed under the non-mineral public land laws, unless the lands have already been classified as valuable or suitable for such type of application, or shall be so classified upon consideration of a petition-application. Any petition-application that is filed will be considered on its merits.

4. Pursuant to the authority delegated to me by Order No. 701, § 1.5(c), of the Director of the Bureau of Land Management, dated July 23, 1964, the lands listed in paragraph 1, with the exception of section 36, title to which has vested in the State of Utah, are opened to filing of application, petition, selection and location generally, but excepting applications under the Small Tract Act, subject to valid existing rights, and the requirements of applicable law, effective 10 a.m., on November 8, 1965. They will also be open to application and location under the United States mining and mineral leasing laws beginning 10:00 a.m., November 8, 1965. All valid applications received at or prior to that time will be considered as simultaneously filed at that time.

5. Inquiries should be addressed to the Manager, Land Office, Bureau of Land Management, 125 South State Street, Salt Lake City, Utah, 84111.

Order Providing for the Opening of Public Lands

OCTOBER 7, 1965.

1. In exchanges of lands made under the provisions of section 8 of the Act of June 28, 1934 (48 Stat. 1272; 43 U.S.C. 315g), as amended, the following-described lands have been conveyed to the United States:

SALT LAKE MERIDIAN, UTAH
UTAH 0144576

T. 7 S., R. 5 W.,
Sec. 32, W $\frac{1}{2}$ NW $\frac{1}{4}$.
T. 8 S., R. 5 W.,
Sec. 6, lots 3, and 6.
T. 8 S., R. 6 W.,
Sec. 1, SE $\frac{1}{4}$.

UTAH 0144577

T. 6 S., R. 5 W.,
Sec. 8, S $\frac{1}{2}$ S $\frac{1}{2}$;
Sec. 16, S $\frac{1}{2}$;
Sec. 18, S $\frac{1}{2}$ SE $\frac{1}{4}$.

The areas described aggregate 881.12 acres of public land.

2. The above-described conveyances to the United States did not include the mineral estate.

3. The lands in Ts. 7 and 8 S., R. 5 W., and T. 8 S., R. 6 W., are located 3 to 4 miles west of the junction of Utah State Highway 36 and Lookout Pass Road. The topography is moderately steep to rolling and the soils are generally shallow and rocky with some moderately deep clay loam. Vegetative cover is of the shad-scale type, associated with greasewood, rabbit brush, cheat grass, and a variety of annual weeds, grasses and shrubs.

4. The lands in T. 6 S., R. 5 W., are located about 5 miles south of Clover, Utah. The topography is gently undulating and the soil a deep clay loam. Vegetative cover includes sagebrush with greasewood patches, saltbrush, cheat grass, squirrel tail and a variety of weed annuals. The climate is too arid for cultivation without artificial irrigation for which there is no known supply of water.

5. No application for these restored lands will be allowed under the non-mineral public land laws, unless the lands have already been classified as valuable or suitable for such type of application, or shall be so classified upon consideration of a petition-application. Any petition-application that is filed will be considered on its merits.

6. Pursuant to the authority delegated to me by Order No. 701, § 1.5(c), of the Director of the Bureau of Land Management dated July 23, 1964, the lands described in paragraph 1, are hereby opened to filing of application, petition, and selection generally, but excepting applications under the Small Tract Act, subject to valid existing rights, the provisions of existing withdrawals, and the requirements of applicable law, beginning at 10 a.m., on November 1, 1965.

7. Inquiries concerning the restored lands shall be addressed to the Manager, Land Office, Bureau of Land Management, 125 South State Street, P.O. Box 11505, Salt Lake City, Utah, 84111.

Notice of Proposed Withdrawal and Reservation of Lands

OCTOBER 7, 1965.

The Bureau of Reclamation, U.S. Department of the Interior, has filed an application, Utah 0146858, for the withdrawal of the lands described below, from all forms of appropriation, including the mining laws and mineral leasing laws, except for oil and gas. The purpose of the withdrawal is to permit utilization of these lands for the construction, management, and operation of the proposed Lake Fork Dam and Reservoir Site.

The lands described are all public lands withdrawn for the Ashley National Forest.

For a period of 30 days from the date of publication of this notice, all persons who wish to submit comments, suggestions, or objections in connection with the proposed withdrawal may present their views in writing to the undersigned officer of the Bureau of Land Management, P.O. Box 11505, Salt Lake City, Utah, 84111.

The determination of the Secretary on the application will be published in the FEDERAL REGISTER. A separate notice will be sent to each interested party of record.

If circumstances warrant it, a public hearing will be held at a convenient time and place, which will be announced.

The lands involved in the application are:

Sec. 2. In accordance with approved procedures, the vessels listed below which called at Cuba after January 1, 1963, have reacquired eligibility to carry United States Government-financed cargoes from the United States by virtue of the persons who control the vessels having given satisfactory certification and assurance:

(a) That such vessels will not, thenceforth, be employed in the Cuba trade so long as it remains the policy of the United States Government to discourage such trade; and

(b) That no other vessels under their control will thenceforth be employed in the Cuba trade, except as provided in paragraph (c) and

(c) That vessels under their control which are covered by contractual obligations, including charters, entered into prior to December 16, 1963, requiring their employment in the Cuba trade shall be withdrawn from such trade at the earliest opportunity consistent with such contractual obligations.

CIVIL AERONAUTICS BOARD

[Docket No. 16574; Order E-22773]

DOMESTIC TRUNKLINE CARRIERS AND LOCAL SERVICE CARRIERS

Jet and Propeller Increases; Order of Investigation and Suspension

Adopted by the Civil Aeronautics Board at its office in Washington, D.C. on the 15th day of October 1965.

¹ Revisions to Airline Tariff Publishers, Inc., Agent, C.A.B. No. 44.

service is no longer provided; and that increases and reductions in certain joint fares are necessary to reflect changes in local fares or to meet competitive fares.

No complaints have been filed against the proposed tariff revisions.

We believe the proposed joint fare decreases, new joint fares, and other fare adjustments, involving new routing options, deletions, or fare cancellations, should be permitted to become effective since they do not appear unreasonable. However, the fare increases proposed in sixteen markets have not been supported by adequate economic justification. In view of the industry's present earning trend and the Board's action regarding other tariffs involving fare increases,² the proposals to increase joint fares do not appear to be appropriate at this time. Accordingly, the Board finds that the proposed joint fare increases appear unwarranted and should be suspended. Upon consideration of all relevant facts, the Board finds that the proposed increased joint fares set forth in the attachment may be unjust or unreasonable, unjustly discriminatory, unduly preferential, or unduly prejudicial, and should be investigated; and that the proposed joint fare decreases, the new proposed joint fares, and the proposed joint fare adjustments involving routing options and cancellations should be permitted to become effective.

Accordingly, pursuant to the Federal Aviation Act of 1958 and particularly sections 204(a), 403, 404, and 1002 thereof,

It is ordered That:

1. An investigation is instituted to determine whether the fares and provisions described in Appendix A attached hereto,³ and rules, regulations, or practices affecting such fares and provisions, are or will be unjust or unreasonable, unjustly discriminatory, unduly preferential, unduly prejudicial, or otherwise unlawful, and if found to be unlawful, to determine and prescribe the lawful fares and provisions, and rules, regulations, and practices affecting such fares and provisions;

2. Pending hearing and decision by the Board, the fares and provisions described in Appendix A hereto are suspended and their use deferred to and including January 17, 1966, unless otherwise ordered by the Board, and that no changes be made therein during the period of suspension except by order or special permission of the Board;

3. This investigation be assigned for hearing before an examiner of the Board at a time and place hereafter to be designated; and

4. A copy of this order be filed with the tariff and shall be served upon all domestic trunkline carriers and local service carriers which are made a party to the investigation.

² Order E-22483; Order E-22587.

³ Appendix filed as part of original document.

This order will be published in the FEDERAL REGISTER.

FEDERAL POWER COMMISSION

[Docket No. RI66-104, etc.]

GRAHAM-MICHAELIS DRILLING CO. ET AL.

Order Providing for Hearing on and Suspension of Proposed Changes in Rates, and Allowing Rate Changes To Become Effective Sub- ject to Refund¹

OCTOBER 13, 1965.

The Respondents named herein have filed proposed changes in rates and charges of currently effective rate schedules for sales of natural gas under Commission jurisdiction, as set forth in Appendix A hereof.

The proposed changed rates and charges may be unjust, unreasonable, unduly discriminatory, or preferential, or otherwise unlawful.

The Commission finds: It is in the public interest and consistent with the Natural Gas Act that the Commission enter upon hearings regarding the lawfulness of the proposed changes, and that the supplements herein be suspended and their use be deferred as ordered below.

The Commission orders: (A) Under the Natural Gas Act, particularly sections 4 and 15, the regulations pertaining thereto (18 CFR Ch. I), and the Commission's rules of practice and procedure, public hearings shall be held concerning the lawfulness of the proposed changes.

(B) Pending hearings and decisions thereon, the rate supplements herein are suspended and their use deferred until date shown in the "Date Suspended Until" column, and thereafter until made effective as prescribed by the Natural Gas Act: Provided, however, That the supplements to the rate schedules filed by Respondents, as set forth herein, shall become effective subject to refund on the date and in the manner herein prescribed if within 20 days from the date of the issuance of this order Respondents shall each execute and file under its above-designated docket number with the Secretary of the Commission its agreement and undertaking to comply with the refunding and reporting procedure required by the Natural Gas Act and § 154.102 of the regulations thereunder, accompanied by a certificate showing service of copies thereof upon all purchasers under the rate schedule involved. Unless Respondents are advised to the contrary within 15 days after the filing of their respective agreements and undertakings, such agreements and undertakings shall be deemed to have been accepted.

(C) Until otherwise ordered by the Commission, neither the suspended supplements, nor the rate schedules sought to be altered, shall be changed until disposition of these proceedings or expiration of the suspension period.

(D) Notices of intervention or petitions to intervene may be filed with the Federal Power Commission, Washington, D.C., 20426, in accordance with the rules of practice and procedure (18 CFR 1.8 and 1.37(f)) on or before December 1, 1965.

By the Commission.

⁷ Subject to a deduction of 0.4466 cent per Mcf for sour gas (gas is sour).

⁸ Subject to a deduction of 0.4466 cent per Mcf for sour gas (Respondent's filings reflect that gas is sweet).

⁹ Although Shell is entitled to higher rates under the revenue-sharing provisions of the contract, it has only filed for increases under the periodic increased rate provisions.

¹⁰ Includes base rate of 6.3066 cents per Mcf plus tax reimbursement less deduction for supercompressibility adjustment. (Tax reimbursement and supercompressibility vary monthly.)

¹¹ Includes base rate of 7.1463 cents per Mcf plus tax reimbursement less deduction for supercompressibility adjustment. (Tax reimbursement and supercompressibility vary monthly.)

¹² Subject to a downward B.t.u. adjustment.

Graham-Michaelis Drilling Co. (Operator), et al., (Graham-Michaelis) and Shell Oil Co.'s (Shell) proposed increased rates are for wellhead sales of gas to Phillips Petroleum Company (Phillips) from the Texas Hugoton Field, Sherman County, Tex., and Texas County, Okla. (Railroad District No. 10). Phillips, the plant operator, gathers and processes the gas in its Sherman Gasoline Plant and resells the residue gas after processing to Michigan Wisconsin Pipe Line Co. under its FPC Gas Rate Schedule No. 4 at a current rate of 14.2183 cents per Mcf, which rate is in effect subject to refund in Docket No. RI60-349. Graham-Michaelis and Shell's proposed rates are below the area increased rate ceiling of 11 cents per Mcf but the sales related thereto are considered to be for nonpipeline quality gas. We consider the increased rate ceiling to be applicable in these cases at the outlet of the processing plant which is the point of delivery to the pipeline company. Under the circumstances, we believe that Graham-Michaelis and Shell's proposed rate increases should be suspended for one day from the date shown in the "Effective Date" column on the attached Appendix "A".

SINCLAIR OIL & GAS CO. ET AL.

Order Accepting Rate Filing, Providing for Hearings on and Suspension of Proposed Changes in Rates¹

OCTOBER 13, 1965.

The above-named respondents have tendered for filing proposed changes in presently effective rate schedules for sales of natural gas subject to the jurisdiction of the Commission. The proposed changes, which constitute increased rates and charges, are designated as follows:

² Periodic rate increase.

⁴ Pressure base is 14.65 p.s.i.a.

⁵ Subject to upward and downward B.t.u. adjustment for gas containing more or less than 1000 B.t.u. per cubic foot.

⁶ Includes base rate of 15.0 cents per Mcf before increase and 16.0 cents per Mcf after increase plus upward B.t.u. adjustment for gas containing 1123 B.t.u. per cubic foot.

⁷ Hassie Hunt Trust resells the gas under its FPC Gas Rate Schedule No. 4 to Texas Eastern Transmission Corp. at an effective rate of 17.0314 cents per Mcf (including 1.75 cents tax reimbursement) subject to refund in Docket No. RI65-285. Buyer has not, as yet, filed its related increase to 17.2366 cents per Mcf, inclusive of tax reimbursement, due Nov. 1, 1965.

⁸ Pressure base is 15.025 p.s.i.a.

⁹ Includes 1.0 cent per Mcf tax reimbursement. Also includes 1.25 cents handling charge and 0.25 cent compression charge which are deducted by buyer.

¹⁰ The stated effective date is the first day after expiration of the required statutory notice.

¹¹ Provides for installation of compression facilities by seller and increased rate of 14.25 cents per Mcf.

¹² Includes 0.25 cent per Mcf dehydration charge to buyer.

¹³ Renegotiated increase due to expense of seller installing and operating compression facilities.

¹⁴ Redetermined rate increase.

¹⁵ Includes letter agreement dated Aug. 20, 1965, providing for the redetermined rate for the 3 year period commencing Oct. 1, 1965.

Caroline Hunt Sands and Tidewater Oil Company request that their proposed rate increases be permitted to become effective as of October 1, 1965. Texas Gas Production Co. (Texas Gas) requests that its proposed rate increase be allowed to become effective "immediately upon approval by FPC." Good cause has not been shown for waiving the 30-day notice requirement provided in section 4(d) of the Natural Gas Act to permit an earlier effective date for these producers' rate filings and such requests are denied.

Texas Gas has submitted a Letter Agreement dated June 30, 1965, designated as Supplement No. 3 to Texas Gas' FPC Gas Rate Schedule No. 6, which provides for installation of compression facilities by seller and increased rate of 14.25 cents per Mcf. We believe that it would be in the public interest to accept for filing Texas Gas' aforementioned letter agreement to become effective as of October 14, 1965, the date of expiration of the statutory notice, but not the proposed rate contained therein.

All of the proposed increased rates and charges exceed the applicable area price level for increased rates as set forth in the Commission's Statement of General Policy No. 61-1, as amended (18 CFR 2.56).

The proposed changed rates and charges may be unjust, unreasonable, unduly discriminatory, or preferential, or otherwise unlawful.

The Commission finds:

(1) Good cause has been shown for accepting for filing Texas Gas' Letter Agreement dated June 30, 1965, designated as Supplement No. 3 to Texas Gas' FPC Gas Rate Schedule No. 6, and for permitting such supplement to become effective as of October 14, 1965, the date of expiration of the statutory notice.

(2) Except for the supplement set forth in (1) above, it is necessary and proper in the public interest and to aid in the enforcement of the provisions of the Natural Gas Act that the Commission enter upon hearings concerning the lawfulness of the proposed changes, and that the above-designated supplements be suspended and the use thereof deferred as hereinafter ordered.

The Commission orders:

(A) Texas Gas' Letter Agreement, designated as Supplement No. 3 to Texas Gas' FPC Gas Rate Schedule No. 6, is accepted for filing and permitted to become effective as of October 14, 1965.

(B) Pursuant to the authority of the Natural Gas Act, particularly sections 4 and 15 thereof, the Commission's rules of practice and procedure, and the regulations under the Natural Gas Act (18 CFR Ch. I), public hearings shall be held upon dates to be fixed by notices from the Secretary concerning the lawfulness of the proposed increased rates and charges contained in the above-designated supplements (except Supplement No. 3 to Texas Gas' FPC Gas Rate Schedule No. 6).

(C) Pending hearings and decisions thereon, the above-designated rate supplements are hereby suspended and the use thereof deferred until the date indicated in the above "Date Suspended Until" column, and thereafter until such further time as they are made effective in the manner prescribed by the Natural Gas Act.

(D) Neither the supplements hereby suspended, nor the rate schedules sought to be altered thereby, shall be changed until these proceedings have been disposed of or until the periods of suspension have expired, unless otherwise ordered by the Commission.

(E) Notices of intervention or petitions to intervene may be filed with the Federal Power Commission, Washington, D.C., 20426, in accordance with the rules of practice and procedure (18 CFR 1.8 and 1.37 (f)), on or before December 1, 1965.

[Docket No. CP66-95]

WIND GAP DIVISION OF BANGOR GAS CO. AND TRANSCONTINENTAL GAS PIPE LINE CORP.

Notice of Application

OCTOBER 13, 1965.

Take notice that on October 6, 1965, The Wind Gap Division of the Bangor Gas Co. (applicant), 55 South Third Street, Oxford, Pa., filed in Docket No. CP66-95 an application pursuant to section 7(a) of the Natural Gas Act for an order of the Commission directing Transcontinental Gas Pipe Line Corporation (respondent) to establish physical connection of its transportation facilities with the facilities proposed to be constructed by Applicant and to sell and deliver to Applicant volumes of natural gas for local distribution to the public in the Borough of Wind Gap, Northampton County, Pa., all as more fully set forth in the application which is on file with the Commission and open to public inspection.

Applicant proposes to construct and operate 4,200 feet of 4-inch gas line with regulating and metering appurtenances running from a tap on Respondent's Leidy Line at a point where the line crosses State Route 512 in Northampton County, Pa.

Applicant states that it proposes to sell gas to Argyll Manufacturing Co. which has a plant in Wind Gap. Applicant also proposes to construct a distribution system in the Borough to serve natural gas to commercial and residential consumers in that area.

The total estimated volumes of natural gas involved to meet applicant's annual and peak day requirements for the initial 3-year period of proposed operations are stated to be:

	First year	Second year	Third year
Annual (Mcft)----	118,805	131,715	165,055
Peak day (Mcft)---	253.9	359.5	592.5

Total estimated cost of the proposed facilities is $129,535, and will be financed by advances from Penn Fuel Gas, Inc., applicant's parent.

Protests or petitions to intervene may be filed with the Federal Power Commission, Washington, D.C., 20426, in accordance with the rules of practice and procedure (18 CFR 1.8 or 1.10) on or before November 8, 1965.

FEDERAL HOME LOAN BANK BOARD

[No. 19,405]

PARTICIPATIONS ON LOANS PURCHASED BY MEMBER BANKS

Advances by Federal Home Loan Banks

OCTOBER 13, 1965.

Resolved that the Federal Home Loan Bank Board, upon consideration by it of the advisability of publishing a statement of the policy of the Board concerning advances by the Federal Home Loan Banks to permit members of the Federal Home Bank System to purchase participations or loans secured by real estate located outside a member's normal lending territory, hereby directs the Secretary to the Board to transmit the following statement, approved by the Board, to the Office of the Federal Register for publication.

Statement of policy concerning advances by the Federal home loan banks to permit members to purchase loans and participation interests in loans. Advances for the purchase of participations or whole loans secured by real estate located outside a member's normal lending territory are not to be made to members, except to the extent otherwise permitted by the Board. Such advances are not consistent with the purposes of permitting purchases of loans or participations and ordinarily conflict with the provisions in the Board's general policy statement published in the FEDERAL REGISTER of August 14, 1965 (30 F.R. 10168), that advances shall not be made to permit members to obtain what is primarily a rate differential. A member may be granted advances to a limited extent to purchase participations or whole loans secured by real estate located outside its normal lending territory, provided each of the following conditions are met:

(1) Advances for the purchase of such participations or whole loans can be repaid from the member's resources within 9 months;

(2) The member is not a continuous borrower from the bank;

(3) The volume of expansion advances to the member, including any advances for the purchase of such participations or whole loans, is minimal; and

(4) All expansion advances to the member are subject to repayment in 2 years or less.

Moreover, additional advances to the member or renewal of advances for purposes other than withdrawals will not be made during the period such advances are outstanding.

By the Federal Home Loan Bank Board.

Secretary.

FOREIGN-TRADE ZONES BOARD

[Order 67]

REDUCTION AND MODIFICATION OF AREA OF FOREIGN-TRADE ZONE NO. 2; NEW ORLEANS, LA.

Pursuant to the authority granted in the Foreign-Trade Zones Act of June 18, 1934, as amended (48 Stat. 998-1003; 19 U.S.C. 81a-81u), the Foreign-Trade Zones Board has adopted the following order, which is promulgated for the information and guidance of all concerned:

Whereas, the Board of Commissioners of the Port of New Orleans, as Grantee of Foreign-Trade Zone No. 2, filed an application dated July 2, 1965, for permission to reduce and modify the boundaries of the zone by withdrawing 92,782.80 square feet of covered space, and 1.56 acres of uncovered space.

Whereas, the Grantee also requests permission to revise the line of the western portion of the south fence boundary, and the southern portion of the west fence boundary by moving the fence to conform with the above reductions.

Whereas, the reduction and modification of the zone area is to conform to certain structural changes, modifications, and improvements to facilities adjacent to, in the vicinity of, and within Foreign-Trade Zone No. 2.

Now, therefore, the Foreign-Trade Zones Board, after consideration, hereby orders:

That the boundaries of Foreign-Trade Zone No. 2 be, and they are hereby re-established to conform with Exhibits Nos. 1, 3, 6, 8, 10(b), and 13 filed with the Board, which provide for a reduction of 2.13 acres covered space and reduction of 1.56 acres open space, a net reduction of the overall zone area from 22.31 acres to 18.62 acres. Authority is also granted for the necessary structural modifications stemming from the area reductions and boundary revisions, subject to settlement locally with the District Collector of Customs and the District Army Engineer regarding requirements for physical security and protection of the revenue.

It is found that compliance with the notice, public rule making procedure, and effective date requirements of the Administrative Procedure Act (5 U.S.C. 1003) is unnecessary in connection with the issuance of this order, because its application is restricted to one foreign-trade zone, and is of a nature that it imposes no burden on the parties of interest. The effective date of this order is, therefore, upon publication in the FEDERAL REGISTER.

Signed at Washington, D.C., this 13th day of October 1965.

Foreign-Trade Zones Board.*

SECURITIES AND EXCHANGE COMMISSION

[File 7-2475]

ETHYL CORP.

Notice of Application for Unlisted Trading Privileges and of Opportunity for Hearing

OCTOBER 15, 1965.

In the matter of application of the Philadelphia - Baltimore - Washington Stock Exchange for unlisted trading privileges in a certain security.

The above-named national securities exchange has filed an application with the Securities and Exchange Commission pursuant to section 12(f) (1) (B) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 and Rule 12f-1 thereunder, for unlisted trading privileges in the common stock of the following company, which security is listed and registered on one or more other national securities exchanges: Ethyl Corporation; File 7-2475.

Upon receipt of a request, on or before November 1, 1965, from any interested person, the Commission will determine whether the application shall be set down for hearing. Any such request should state briefly the nature of the interest of the person making the request and the position he proposes to take at the hearing, if ordered. In addition, any interested person may submit his views or any additional facts bearing on the said application by means of a letter addressed to the Secretary, Securities and Exchange Commission, Washington 25, D.C., not later than the date specified. If no one requests a hearing, this application will be determined by order of the Commission on the basis of the facts stated therein and other information contained in the official files of the Commission pertaining thereto.

For the Commission (pursuant to delegated authority).

WEST PENN POWER CO.

Notice of Filing Regarding Issue and Sale of First Mortgage Bonds

OCTOBER 15, 1965.

Notice is hereby given that West Penn Power Co. ("West Penn") Cabin Hill, Greensburg, Pa., 15602, an exempt holding company and also a public-utility subsidiary company of Allegheny Power System, Inc., a registered holding company, has filed with this Commission an application, pursuant to the Public Utility Holding Company Act of 1935 ("Act"), regarding a proposal to issue and sell First Mortgage Bonds, and has designated therein section 6(b) of the Act and Rule 50 promulgated thereunder as applicable to the proposed transactions. All interested persons are referred to the application on file at the office of this Commission for a statement of the transactions proposed, which are summarized as follows:

West Penn proposes to issue and sell, pursuant to the competitive bidding requirements of Rule 50 promulgated under the Act, $27,000,000 principal amount of First Mortgage Bonds, Series U, — percent, due November 15, 1995. The interest rate (which shall be a multiple of 1/8 of 1 percent and the price, exclusive of accrued interest, to be paid to the Company for the bonds (which shall be not less than 100 percent or more than 102 3/4 percent of the principal amount of the bonds) will be determined by the competitive bidding. The bonds will be issued under the Mortgage and Deed of Trust dated March 1, 1916, between the Company and The Chase Manhattan Bank, as trustee, as heretofore supplemented and as to be further supplemented by a supplemental indenture, dated November 1, 1965.

The net proceeds from the sale of the bonds will be used by West Penn to pay, at maturity, all of the $27,000,000 principal amount of its First Mortgage Bonds, Series I, 3½ percent, due January 1, 1966.

The fees and expenses to be incurred in connection with the proposed transactions are estimated at an aggregate of $77,000, including legal fees, $10,500; Trustee's fees and expenses, $11,150; printing expenses $13,000; accountant's fees, $7,000; and blue sky fees and expenses, $1,000. The fee of independent counsel for the underwriters, to be paid by the purchaser of the bonds, is estimated at $8,000.

The application states that registration by the Pennsylvania Public Utility Commission of a securities certificate with respect to the bonds is required for their issue and sale, that such a securities certificate has been filed with that Commission, and that a copy of the securities certificate and the order of that Commission will be made a part of the record by amendment.

Notice is further given that any interested person may, not later than November 9, 1965, request in writing that a hearing be held in respect of such matters, stating the nature of his interest, the reasons for the request, and the issues of fact or law, if any, raised by the application which he desires to controvert; or he may request that he be notified should the Commission order a hearing thereon. Any such request should be addressed: Secretary, Securities and Exchange Commission, Washington, D.C., 20549. A copy of such request should be served personally or by mail (air mail if the person being served is located more than 500 miles from the point of mailing) upon the applicant at the above-stated address, and proof of service (by affidavit, or, in case of an attorney at law, by certificate) should be filed contemporaneously with the request. At any time after said date the application, as filed or as it may be amended, may be granted, as provided by Rule 23 of the General Rules and Regulations promulgated under the Act; or the Commission may grant exemption from its rules as provided in Rules 20(a) and 100 thereof, or take such other action as it deems appropriate.

For the Commission (pursuant to delegated authority).

[SEAL] NELLYE A. THORSEN,
Assistant Secretary.
